

We're Going Home

June 10, 2015

In worship, the Lord was wearing fatigues, and so was I! The Lord took something that looked like a name tag and while He was still dancing with me, stuck it to my back. I wondered what was written on it, then I saw it - "MINE." Wow, no one would be confused about who I belonged to now, even in the midst of chaos.

I also had a maroon beret on and we were dancing. He stopped for a moment and pointed to the sky. There was a huge airship flying away from where we were and I heard 'armored personnel carriers'. This ship was dropping pods or cable car looking buses from the 'bomb bay' that was open. And these buses were just hanging in the air with angels near them.

I asked the Lord why I was wearing fatigues.

He smiled and answered, "Because you're helping Me."

I am?

"You are My designated assistant."

Wow! What do I do?

"Follow Me around, comfort Me and keep Me company." He said very matter-of-factly.

Oh Lord, what an honor.

"No, what a blessing that one of My Creations can't stand to be without me for an instant."

Even when my mind drifts?

"Leave a tender moment alone. Lately you've been tuned in almost continuously."

Thank You, Jesus, for that grace.

"Thank you for taking hold of it, My Love."

"We are about to make Our Move...taking you up and away from this place. Don't worry about anything, not even one thing. Not the yard, cleaning, bills, eating, nothing. Just accompany Me day and night. I will come for you when you sleep so you can be with Me. But, you haven't much time. The hour is approaching. Leave off with everything of the world and stay by My side. I love having you here, I love reaching over and touching your hand, I love gazing into your eyes, and forgive Me for not allowing you to see Mine a great deal. You just couldn't bear it and I don't want to weaken or disturb you. Soon enough, My Love, we will be together... soon enough. Tell your spouse that because of his faithfulness many have come to Me in this past week. In fact tell everyone, Those of you who were faithful to accompany Me, those of you who went out of your way to pray and keep vigils, you have reaped much fruit for the Kingdom of God and there will be fanfare when you arrive and great celebration."

"In fact, you will receive a Hero's welcome, because all of you are heroes in your own rights. You have persevered and endured much. The final hour is yet to come, so be on your guard, keep watch. The clock is ticking seconds away from your departure."

Lord, I haven't done enough for my children.

"Don't worry about them, I have them covered. Each and every one has a provision. Don't worry Clare, what you have done for Me, I have done for your children. Notice I said I have done...because I have finished it, all the way down to the last detail. You do not understand the workings of time in Heaven, but I tell you that it is completed and I want you to enter into your rest. Just be vigilant. You don't want to spoil this time and the enemy will try to distract you with insignificant details.

"Tell My Brides, stop worrying about whether or not you will be taken. You know you are Mine and Mine will be with Me. Little mess-ups and faults have you all hung up on details. I am not like your earthly father, your earthly boss, a military sergeant. I am YOUR LOVING SPOUSE! I care for you tenderly, I understand your pressures far better than you do. I see the demonic attacks you are continually fending off and beating yourselves for. I see the bent of your heart and it is pleasing to Me. You are coming with Me. Keep your eyes open, pray for mercy for the inhabitants of Earth who must stay here.

"Get ready to see your loved ones, get ready to be totally overwhelmed by My Profound Gratefulness for your Faithfulness.

"Yes, I am grateful, profoundly grateful. You are not used to being appreciated, you have no experience of the kind of appreciation and respect I have for you. But you're going to find out and be totally overwhelmed. Yes, this will be My joy, to watch you being overwhelmed!

"I want you to stop straining on gnats and rest... I am taking you. If you have given your heart to Me, and live for Me and Me alone, no matter how many mistakes you make, I am still taking you. I'll work out all the kinks in your nature in Heaven, don't sweat the small stuff.

"Just be kind to your neighbor, keep your heart clean and do not give into fear. The last few hours will be intense, but remember I told you they would be. Hang onto Me, keep your eyes off of man and keep your heart riveted on Me, especially being here for Me and comforting Me.

"In this hour, I bless you with a steadfast spirit. To each has been assigned more angels to keep you steady as Our time approaches. I am with you, let nothing frighten or disturb you."

Ezekiel's word from the Lord during prayer this morning, "All of this which is about to unfold is in My control. Be at Peace, let nothing frighten or upset you."
