

Jesus says... I am the Father of the Prodigal... Thank you for bringing the Lost to Me

September 26, 2015 - Words from Jesus to Sister Clare

Jesus began... "You cannot calculate My gratitude to you, My People, for the littlest sacrifice you make to draw others to Me. You will never know until Heaven what it has meant to Me every time you've left a tract behind, been kind to a homeless person, put your comforting arms around a hurting soul, prayed for those who have gone astray. Your outpourings of love on My behalf touch Me so very deeply, to see it, you would hardly believe it."

"But take My word through this vessel, I am profoundly grateful that you set your agendas aside so many times just for Me. Just to be with Me, just to touch someone with My Love. There is fruit, so much fruit! You will not believe your eyes until Heaven, when you see the fruit each of your little gestures of love brought forth."

"I am not a self-sufficient God who sits on a throne and has all He'll ever need or want. No, that is not My character at all. Rather, I am a waiting, pleading, watching God, waiting for My Children to return to Me, longing to have them safely back in My arms."

"I am the Father of the Prodigal, wholly taken up with the return of souls into My bosom, forever intent on living for Me. I wait, I long, I send My messengers, I send My gifts, I send My corrections. I send My love in myriads of ways every day. But so few recognize My very active presence in their lives."

"Yes, of all the stories in the Bible, the Prodigal's Father best describes Me. (Luke 15:11-32)

"What can I say here... 'Thank you?' Well, that will have to do. Thank you, thank you, thank you for all you have done to bring the lost to Me. You will never know the joy you have brought your God - no, not until Heaven. Then the fruit will truly astound you."

"You will see how one little good deed filtered and trickled down, touching not just one or two - but hundreds.

"You will trace the paths of your good deeds and watch as they knock satan out and break open hardened hearts. Yes, you will observe and rejoice in the fruit you have harvested for Me."

"And I will welcome you into My arms... 'Well done, My good and faithful servants. Enter into Your Master's Joy.'" (Matthew 25:21)
