

The Russian People don't want a War & The Delusion of the Elite

July 11, 2016 – Words from Jesus thru Sister Clare

(Clare) Lift up your heads, Heartdwellers. Your redemption draws nigh. Lord, please, give us something. Lord, are You here?

(Jesus) "I am here, Beloved, and nothing is happening quite yet. Steady as she goes. I know you are all ready to make an exit. But the situation is not quite ripe yet and souls are pouring in from Muslim nations.

"The situation is critical in Poland. Many, many prayers are going up from the Russian people, because they do not want to be forced into this war that your sick leader (Obama) is pushing for. The Father is hearing these prayers, Clare. This evil man is going to be frustrated into doing some very foolish things. But God Himself is withstanding him.

"There are people among the elite that have lost their minds and their perspectives. It is the grassroots that are holding this world together right now. The deluded elites are pushing against God, Who is withstanding them. There have now been so many delays, that things are beginning to fall apart at the seams for them. There are underground bases and 'incubators', so to speak, that are beginning to overflow, and running out of space – back-up waiting. And it is causing a deterioration of focus that is seriously compromising a move forward for them.

"This is My Father's doing. Man has his plans but power is from on High and God will not be mocked or forced into anything. So, it is back firing on them. Tensions are growing, internal breakdowns are happening as avenues expected to be open for action and moving forward are closed tightly shut.

"Deterioration, frustration and internal disintegration are happening among those who thought the world would be thrown into confusion and destroyed by now. You, My Brides, are not the only ones waiting anxiously for the Rapture. As I said, deterioration from inside is going on. That is a very good sign. There are still plenty of good people in this world that oppose this. And yes, Mr. Trump is key; I am using him to wake the world up."

(Clare) Lord, it is all so confusing to me. It seems as though we have a chance to rebuild this country and the world – and I don't see how the Rapture fits in with that at all.

(Jesus) "You are correct, but not all the forces of evil have been harnessed, Clare; there is still much hidden from the world."

(Clare) But will the Father allow the Rapture as long as the world is turning around?

(Jesus) "That is a good question. I cannot answer that at this time, Beloved. You are getting a little too curious and looking into things far beyond you. However, I have to say your logic is sound; you just don't know about the forces of evil that play into this."

(Clare) You mean like the demon-aliens and their part?

(Jesus) "Yes. And more you know nothing of. But I will say this: the prayers of the poor people of the world, the grassroots, the real humans of this world are having an impact on events and they are slowing down what the elites have planned. You see, AntiChrist cannot be revealed until those who are holding back the wrath with their prayers are removed. There will be a point where the scales tip, but for now there is still balance. I know you want Me to give you more, Clare, but I cannot.”

(Clare) So, what is Your counsel to us, Lord?

(Jesus) “Steady as she goes. Lifting up your holy hands in prayer and supplication that this evil will be stopped, and that what must take place will take with it the greatest harvest of souls. And then, after prayer, action.

“Pursue your missions, My Brides. Continue on in the right direction bringing forth fruit with your gifts. For some of you, the gift is sickness and sufferings of various kinds. I am with you in your bed of suffering, My Brides. I will comfort you with great tenderness and gratefulness for your loving and giving heart.

“Know that the greatest players in this semi-final scene are My faithful intercessors. The little ones no one sees or cares about. They are the decisive force; they are in the front lines and holding back the tide of evil. If you are one of them, I beg you to find honor and great satisfaction in this role. You are the ones making the greatest difference.

“Persevere and be highly satisfied for your exalted stations in this moment of history. Great will be your reward in Heaven. Do not look to what others are doing and compare yourself. No, press in with your heart focused on My intentions; press in and raise the cry for justice to the Father’s throne. Yours is the decisive voice.

“This is a war zone, and you are the front lines. I am sustaining you. Great is the glory associated with a love that gives and gives beyond itself. This was My portion and when you manifest it, you are most like Me. I am with you. Do not grow weary. Take comfort from the great joy you bring Me, My Brides. Because of your faithfulness, prophecy will be accomplished in a way no one could have foreseen or imagined.”
