

Jesus says... The Doors of Mercy are closing Only Seconds left on God's Clock

January 15th, 2016 - Words from Jesus to Sister Clare

The blessings of our sweet Jesus and His company be with you, Heartdwellers.

Well, I've been getting hit with distractions, one after the other. And I wasn't recognizing that they WERE distractions until my husband brought it to my attention. Thank God for my husband. He has the anointing to see right through what the enemy is trying to do.

Precious Heartdwellers, some of you have been writing heart-rending letters asking for guidance from me. And it just breaks my heart - there are so many letters, we can't answer them all. We can't do it! The Lord has asked me to do a specific task and I have to complete it. And there is no time beyond the time it takes me to just eat, sleep, live and work on what He's asked me to do. Ezekiel and I have wept over some of your situations, how very painful they are and the Lord has assured us, as we take care of what He has asked us to do, He will take care of you. But the Lord has taught us also, how to get our own answers from Him, now is the time to put into practice, what He has taught us. Just press in with the Lord and ask Holy Spirit to guide you, He has all your Answers.

A month ago I could have answered you, but now I can't. There is no time left Heart Dwellers, we are truly on the verge of the Tribulation. I saw these Giant Doors of Mercy and they are slowly swinging shut, and what is left on the outside is suffering beyond our comprehension. The Lord needs your prayers for NOW - more than ever. He needs our fast offerings NOW. He needs our repentance for the world NOW. I don't know how many different ways I can say it! There's no more time!

When I came into prayer, the Lord held me to His heart and I just cried and cried, not really knowing the specifics and exactly why, except somehow, my spirit has been shown what is about to happen and I've been given a glimpse of how serious it really is...and I just kept weeping and telling Jesus, "I'm so sorry You have to do this, I'm so sorry." As I was being held by Him and I was crying, soon He began to weep too and several angels surrounded us and comforted us.

He began to speak...

"Yes, the reality of it is terribly daunting. There are things I must keep from your eyes so terrible are they. Yes, time is up, the horrible reality is upon us. Oh, Clare, I wish you didn't have to go through this with Me. I so wish I could deliver you out of this world before the worst of it hits. I wish you hadn't been born at this time, but you were. And you've been created for such a time as this. Stay in prayer, My love, and don't let anything carry you off."

And I just want to make an aside here and say that, He's not saying that we're going through the Tribulation, what's He's saying is that we're going to see the beginning of it. And that in itself is going to be just horrendous.

"Do only the designated tasks I have laid before you. Everyone and everything else I will take care of."

As I rested my head on His Heart and He held me ever so tightly, I began to see Blood... pools of blood and more blood everywhere. It is almost as though those bodies just melted in pools of blood. Then I saw fire... bodies lying on the ground burning and burning. I saw a Korean woman alive and burning, calling out for someone. She's lifted her head and called out. A child was near her, obviously dead, she collapsed and died as well.

The skies were thick with smoke. I'm looking at a city on a bay, reminiscent of Oakland in California, but not necessarily that city. This city was some kind of shipping port. I just keep seeing fireballs of debris falling from the sky, leaving a trail of smoke behind them. They look like the shattered remnants of a passing comet or volcanic eruptions coming from the sky. Coming from out of nowhere. It seemed that the city was totally quiet...because everyone was dead. Everyone.

I cried out, 'Mercy, Lord, Mercy!'

And a quiet voice came from behind my left shoulder, where my guardian angel is usually stationed. And the voice said..."The time of mercy is over, Clare. This is God's judgment on this evil and corrupt world."

Then I said...

'Please Lord, say something to me.'

He began...

"What is there to say except utter devastation to the cities of the world? One by one they will fall, beginning in the East and coming across Europe and to your country."

"What can I say except that the time of mercy has come to an end. Pray for Mercy. On My Eternal clock face there are only seconds remaining, pray much for mercy before the door has completely been sealed shut."

But Lord, Your mercy is never ending...

"This is true, My mercy never fails. Never. But the harvest is ripe and the sickle is sharpened and I will have an end to sin. Yes, I will have a complete end to sin. Oh Clare, what I am showing you are those nations that are marked for destruction. Yours is among them."

"The world will not be recognizable when Satan has had his way with it. Nothing remains as it was, only charred remnants and utter chaos."

Jesus, I feel so sick inside.

"Nevertheless, you must rally yourself while there is still a bit of time and finish what I have given you to do, Clare. Finish it. You've allowed distractions to have their way with you. Now I am asking you not to allow another distraction. Buckle down and work. Please, My Beloved, it is so important to Me."

At that point, when the Lord said that, I was just weak. I'd been crying - I was just empty and just as weak as I could be. And I said... 'Jesus, please give me the strength and clarity.'

After I asked Him for that, all of a sudden my empty pain racked heart began beating again with new strength. The anointing rose up. He is going to help me, I could feel it.

Oh saints of God, pray your chaplets of mercy, make your fast offerings. Seek the Lord with all your heart, seek Him with all your strength. Don't focus on your problems right now, they are nothing compared to what is coming. We are used to being secure in this country and having what we need, but the whole world is about to be thrown into chaos. There is no more time for selfish thinking. Back up the Lord with your prayers, focus on those He is about to lose forever. Please do this, this is where His heart is aching the most.

Get your mind off your problems, if you must have a meditation, imagine those who have lived in suffering and have not found or responded to Jesus. Imagine that they are planning a life ahead of them or expecting something good to happen, but the jaws of Hell have opened and are heading wide open for them. Behind them stand demons with pitch forks, pushing them right into the abyss. Imagine now that the person who just fell into that abyss was your own son or daughter and you will never see them again.

Do you see how critical this is? Pray and offer sacrifices that they might be saved even at the last minute. And if you have issues that must be addressed, press into the Lord and expect Him to act. Review our teachings on getting a word from God and get busy! You are adults now, you and Holy Spirit can work it out together, He is right there with you, just waiting for your full attention. And understand that there's very little time left. Hang on. Things are coming to an end and they're wrapping up. Trust in the Lord with all your heart. And lean not on your own understanding.
