

A Gentle Correction & The Death of America

July 13th, 2016 - Words from Jesus to Sister Clare

The first Part... Prayers to avert War & A gentle Correction

The Lord is with us Heartdwellers. He cares so very much for us.

This is just a short message, I know, but I wanted to bring to your attention the critical situation with Russia and NATO right now, and I felt that I had to get this message out, so that we could all pray. If any of you have been experiencing much more suffering lately, much more pain, many more crosses and problems, I can tell you that we, too, are in this place.

These last few days have been extremely hard, but as the Lord says in this dialogue, "This has been a rough day. But we're trying to avert a war you know." And that is exactly what is going on. And today is a decisive meeting with the heads of state and NATO concerning Russia. Putin has been really actively trying to get America's attention that we are headed for nuclear war, but of course the government controlled media is ignoring his attempts to get to us.

So, I am asking you all to pray for the world situation. Russia is poised for a war with NATO and the US and is expecting Obama to attack first. As we all know, his term of office has been about destroying America and now he is gunning for Russia to destroy our cities with nuclear war. Pray, dear ones, the situation is desperately drawing close to nuclear exchanges. And do not grow impatient in suffering. Jesus is gathering as many offerings as we are willing to give Him.

And I, for one, have had some struggles lately with showing restraint. And I have to say, though the issues were small, nothing is small when it comes to pleasing God.

"Make do with one, two are not necessary."

"Less is more."

I was feeling badly because I knew I had blown it.

And of course the demons love to shoot me full of arrows of condemnation and hopelessness. The Lord, though, was very tender in prayer and began immediately to comfort and admonish me.

He began... "Dear one, I am not here to condemn but to love. Yet as My Bride, you must give a generous example of self-control and have only those things that are really necessary to you and the ministry. Even then, I prefer you to be on the poor side."

Yes, Lord, I know.

"Put your head here, Clare, over My heart. You are being buffeted. You need to stand up to this and overcome it. There is really no more to say. Be a good and generous example of frugality, even in food."

He continued... "This has been a rough day. We are trying to avert a war, you know."

Yes, Lord, I know.

"Prayer is working, but it's not looking good. However, don't stop praying. There are many more forces and dynamics in this mix than what is apparent - yet I don't want you going into it and studying it. This would be a waste of your precious time."

OK, Lord. I understand.

"It is good to be ignorant of many things for the Love of God', someone once said. A mind that is cluttered with the doings of the world is an unsettling place to be. I like a peaceful, simple mind best. You know, I must dwell there, too."

I know, Lord.

"Well, we are not giving up on you, Clare. Though your sins are many, your love is much too. And in the end, your love for Me will win over. So, stand tall in the saddle and don't let those 'cattle' (that is my flesh) break out of formation like unruly steers. You know when you please Me and when you are walking the edge. Acknowledging that is a sign that you want to cooperate with Me - it's when you pretend it doesn't matter that you fall. It does matter. It matters very much and if it makes you feel better, I am so very pleased when you really exercise self-control in the little things.

"Understand that success with the little things insures success with the bigger ones. It's that holy staircase again: success builds upon success, failure weakens and paves the way for more failure. I love to see you take those steps upwards, and I am there at your right hand cheering you on."

And in that moment, I had a vision of the Lord. We were on a staircase to Heaven. I was wearing my wedding dress and we were ascending the staircase. He was on my right and was helping me, holding my hand and giving me strength with each step in self-denial. I almost felt like a little toddler holding Daddy's hand. It was very sweet!

Well anyway, that's the long and short of it for today. Please, keep Russia, NATO and the US in your prayers. Understand that if things seem harder, it's for a very, very good reason.

The Lord bless you all.

And now to the second Part... The Death & Resurrection of America

Heartdwellers in America and the world, I want to give you a word of comfort.

During my prayer time, I was directed to a word the Lord gave me on April 9th, 2015, which was a time when military exercises were going on and we were very close to war. And it didn't materialize at that point, thank the Lord, because of our intercession. But we're again on the brink of something here, and I want to give you this word, because it is so encouraging.

The Lord is with America. And those He loves, He chastises. So, no matter what happens in our country, I want you to remember this word. Please.

I came into prayer very late tonight, because I was trying to answer some very urgent messages from you, dear Family. And immediately, without having been more than a few minutes with the Lord in worship, I saw us in black.

I was wearing a black widow's garment and Jesus was wearing a black widower's garment.

He began... "The death of America, spiritually and physically."

"You know well what is being played on the surface, saber rattling, exercises near the North Pole, all of that is just for show.

"The man people call your president, the man of stealth and intrigue who gains office by deceit is merely playing to the masses, so that when destruction comes, it will look authentic - when in reality it is no more than a superficial show to cover for the destruction of all sovereignties, that only one may dominate the world."

"He has done a stellar job of destroying you, America. And this I have allowed, because you have played the harlot and slept with every passerby - while I, your Husband, stood by as each had their turn in our bed.

"And now what shall I say? 'The ten horns which you saw, and the beast, will hate the harlot and will make her desolate and naked, and will eat her flesh and will burn her up with fire. For I have put it in their hearts to execute My purpose by having a common purpose, and by giving their kingdom to the beast, until My words will be fulfilled....' (That's from Revelation 17:16.)

"Nonetheless, I am still with you. Even as Hosea waited on Gomer to finish her whoring and grow weary of her paramours. (secret lovers) Yes, indeed I am still here America, and when you seek Me with your whole heart, you will indeed find Me, ready to reconcile you to Myself, says the Lord your God.

"So, in the heat of your injuries, turn to Me and I will give you comfort. I will wash and medicate your burns, I will dress them with clean linens, I will lead you by the right way and restore the ruined homesteads to you. Yes, you will recover, you will again be faithful to Me.

"I speak not to the detestable worshipers of Baal whom your capitol city was built for, no - I speak not to you, for you shall be utterly destroyed even in your underground country. You who feel so secure shall die in your underground coffins. You I consider no more, for you shall be no more in My way.

"I speak to the hearts of America that continue to hold the vision I inspired. Those who refused to sleep with foreigners, those who could not overcome the greedy ones who held dominance and sway over a shallow and gullible people bent on living for their comforts. I am with you.

"Go forward with courage. I, Myself, will be with you and in the end, what has been planned for you will come to nothing and again you will rise from the ashes to succor the whole world and be in accord with My Kingdom as it comes to free all men from the Oppressors.

"My peace be with you, sons and daughters of America, who hold to the vision of righteousness. Crippling blows shall you receive, but I will restore and find My pleasure in you once again as your country returns to Me. One Nation Under God. The God Who suffers with you, the God who loves you and bestowed great beauty on your land, and the God who surely will restore you.

"Hold fast to these words, for they are faithful and true."

I felt the urgency of reading this message to you, because we have no idea what's going to happen in the next few days or weeks. All I know is that the Lord is going to, once again, restore this country. I wanted you to have that as a point of hope. That no matter how bleak and dark things get, there is a hope for this country once again.

And as far as the Rapture is concerned, I continue to believe that the Lord said after Miami was bombed would be the day the Lord came for us in the Rapture. And just for my nay-sayers, He didn't say what day Miami would be bombed. And I don't think the governments even know that. So, that doesn't violate what the Scripture says about nobody knowing the day or the hour.

The Lord bless you all, Heartdwellers. And please - hold onto this hope and share it with others. There may come a time when we can't communicate with one another. But if we have at least this word of hope from the Lord, it will give us something to stand on and to look forward to in the future.
