

Jesus exposes the secret Weapons of Satan... Spiritual Warfare Part 4

August 12th, 2016 - Teaching from Jesus through Sister Clare
Spoken by Jackie

Clare began...

The Lord is with us, Heartdwellers, in a really marvelous, marvelous way. May His peace and wisdom dwell in our hearts.

I know some of you are dealing with disappointment, and I am praying for you...but please don't allow the enemy to sow discord or throw you off course with your faith.

I want to address two things tonight. They're very, very important. In fact, I can understand why we've been hit so hard recently. The things in this teaching from the Lord are going to be tremendously helpful to stop the spiritual attacks and the warfare that's been going on amongst us.

So, the topics are... Spiritual Warfare & A Healthy Marriage

This is a continuation on the lessons on warfare, because I am learning things that will make for a healthy marriage and will also help us to put down these attacks from the enemy.

The Lord has spoken to us about doors in a previous message. And that a door opens when we sin in our heart, in our mind or in the physical realm. Along with that door come demons... and more demons... and more demons. Once that door has been opened, it gets used by many demons, depending on what the Lord permits.

So, why would Jesus allow a Christian to be sifted by demons? Simply: they are not walking in perfect charity and obedience. And we have discovered that the Lord's idea of charity and ours... are light-years apart.

Here's how the demons work. This is a recent example, from my own life...

I get up in the morning, feeling a little cranky, in pain, not fully conscious. And I find out my husband forgot to circulate fresh air during the night, which I specifically asked him to do before I went to bed. Now these adobe rooms are hot - and the cats, even though they are neutered, went in and marked some territory.

I'm extremely sensitive to odors and oxygen in the air and he is habitually closing windows behind me, because he gets cold, and I love fresh air. So right off the bat: I'm irritated. No, that's not right... I was downright angry. I said it in a nice way, though on the inside it was not a pretty sight, "Honey, you forgot to circulate fresh air in the studio last night and the cats went in there. It smells awful." Of course, we do have a spray that takes care of it immediately...

He, of course, gives me a very good reason why he forgot and I say "I forgive you"... But on the INSIDE, I'm accusing him of doing it deliberately, because he loves to shut windows behind me. So, I am stewing.

Right then and there I opened a BIG door by my pride, which made me angry. We can always point to Pride as the root of our anger, and accusing God as the source. I failed to yield to him and show charity. I falsely accused him, because I suspect he really did it deliberately - so now I'm accusing him of lying. I'm stewing in Selfishness, Anger, Pride, Resentment, A Critical Spirit and False Accusation...and many doors with many demons have just been opened.

And this is at the BEGINNING of my day!

Guys, I am NO saint. I have a LOT of pride. And I can tell that, because I get angry or irritated when something doesn't go my way. I want to make that clear. I get angry, I get indignant, I accuse, I expect perfection. I hold a grudge...secretly thinking, 'He'll do it again, so you'll have to check everything when he's in bed for the night.'

Uhhhh....I am the worst burden to my own self!

But, just in the first 15 minutes of my day I have opened the door for oppression all day long, unless I repent and ask forgiveness and make it up to him. And even then, there is no guarantee the Lord will stop the demons. In fact, even if I shut the doors, repent and apologize, I still have seen oppression hound me for the rest of the day. And when I ask a friend with discernment to pray for me, they are still seeing open doors, along with the demons that waltzed right in with them.

This not easy, dear ones! We are setting out to conquer our flesh: things that irritate, inconvenience, moving too slowly, oppose us...things from years ago that have become an irritating pattern between us and our spouse - and they the open doors immediately. And some of those doors have never been shut, and the demons that came with them have never been kicked out 'cause we are still holding grudges.

So, in this case, I ask Holy Spirit to please help me. I repent and ask forgiveness of my husband, I ask forgiveness of the Lord for my pride, ungratefulness even, that I have a husband. My unwillingness to suffer a little and let it go...not just from the conversation but from my mind and my heart. Carrying this stuff makes us sick.

Once we've opened a door and the demons come in, then they defecate all over us in our soul. And it gets putrid...and it builds up. Rick Joyner talks about that in one of his books.

In the meantime, Ezekiel is getting condemnation that he isn't a good husband, discord from his wife, anger because he likes the windows closed and 'why can't I live with it?' And 'I just always have to have them open!' Condemnation if he forgot, because he wasn't feeling well, condemnation if he didn't forget but just wanted it shut...so now he's got lying to contend with, also. And he's already opened several doors and the demons come in and make themselves right at home, leaving their nasty defecation on his soul.

I want to share with you the demons most commonly at work. A critical spirit, selfishness, false accusation, impatience, condemnation, frustration, resentment, division. That's a big one, and all these other guys operate underneath that one. Pride, fear, grief, sorrow, isolation, alienation, loneliness, and self-pity.

Then there are energy-vampire demons to suck the life out of us, especially when we go out into the public, stores, malls, etc. And there are corrals made up of energy fields, operating at a certain frequency, that isolate us from our work and others, as well as manipulating moods by frequency modulation. A person can have more than one corral and each one has it's own function.

So, we have oppression from different sources...

Open doors, demons - who open and come in and work through that door.

Energy-vampire demons, which I banish with the Blood of Jesus, by the way.

Multiple corrals that isolate our feelings and thoughts from our work or another person, most commonly our spouse.

Usually, when I go into prayer, we both have them. He has one between himself and I. And I have one between myself and him.

Before we prayed against these corrals, my cats had been avoiding me and each other. They were scattered all over the place! There was just a strange kind of distance and coolness. They were always disappearing for a few hours. And that was unusual - they used to sleep on the bed all the time.

We prayed and discovered isolation, alienation and fear demons, as well as corrals. We prayed and they were removed and sent to the abyss. Within the next day, all our cats started sleeping on the bed again, playing with each other, cuddling and following us around to be petted. Just in one day there was a marked difference in behavior. So, these things are SO REAL.

We noticed our dog, too, seemed depressed. He had grief, sorrow and isolation demons. I can't tell you the difference these prayers have made.

These corrals also get in the way of healing from one person to another. Pray the following Prayer "In the Name above all Names, Jesus, I command all energy fields to come down and not to be replaced. I call upon the Holy Angels to protect this endeavor, to stand guard and stop all intruders, from all sources from interfering in any way." (Message from May 30th, 2016 - How the Enemy blocks our Creativity)

Are you and your spouse feeling a little distant? Almost assuredly you have these corrals that are separating you. They are also used as steering fences, to steer you away from your work and each other. When we lived on the mountain and raised sheep, we used steering fences to bring them into their corrals at night. And these are very similar but they're made of energy whorls, or vortexes, circles - instead of livestock wire. There have been corrals between me and the painting of Jesus, my music, my husband and my animals.

There are also blocks. They can be the size of a huge limestone block, or a stack of blocks 30 feet high and 30 feet wide, blocking your way from what you want to do for the Lord, even under obedience.

And there can be a multitude of each of these: many doors, many demons, many corrals...double and triple corrals. Uh, it gets overwhelming! One to separate us from our work, one to separate us from our wife, one to separate us from our pets and even one to cut us off from connecting with our ministry or our work.

I have felt these all of my life, but I never knew what to do about them. Sometimes they are taken out after worship. Sometimes the Lord answers the prayer and we feel relief.

But are they being held in place by a sinful habit? That's at the heart of this, guys. That's the point... If we're going to get aggravated again for what troubled us before, that door is going to open again. And again, and again. And it's a merry-go-round until WE determine that we are not going to continue to fall for the same tricks. Rather, we are going to show saintly charity and say nothing, think nothing, feel nothing.

I do not have that kind of self-control, but I know Who does, and I appeal to Him. This is one of the fruits of the Spirit. In fact, He just gave me the Rhema "God will not allow you to be tempted, tested or tormented beyond your strength. His help will always be equal to the trial He sends." So, we are working on this one together.

The main point I am making here, is that we are our own worst enemy. We open the doors to oppression by our bad behavior. Not bad, like... shooting someone, or stealing on income tax. Bad, like holding resentment with someone, even for 20 years or over, just for the littlest annoyances!

This realization just about knocked me off my horse. Do we realize we invite the demons in by what we think and feel, not just what we say or act on? Attitudes become habitual sins! But remember what He has taught us before: ANY criticism at all wounds a soul; though they are not aware of where it came from, it still hurts and weakens them. We can keep our mouths shut and put a sweetsie-cutesie smile on our faces - but in our hearts is a cesspool of resentment and frustration, just waiting for the next time that person crosses us.

So what do we do? Well, we can ask for prayer from a good friend, close the doors, bind the demons, send them ALL to the abyss never to send reinforcements or retaliation. So the doors and the demons have to go.

We then have to learn how to respond in charity when we are inconvenienced. This has to do with pride and selfishness. "I want it the way I want it and you can't have it your way." Well, we've been working on that one, for a compromise: close the window part way, leave it open very slightly for fresh air. Both of us give something up for the necessity of the other.

I don't have all the answers, but I know they can be banished by prayer. But are we ready to behave differently once they have been removed? This calls for supernatural charity and the only place I know to increase that is in the Lord's presence, worshipping Him and receiving His love in return. And when we find out how honored and loved Almighty God feels about us, we soak up this goodness of His and want to lavish it on others who are needy for love, even our own spouses. We become grateful and praise God for the good things in our lives, instead of complaining to Him that our spouse shuts the windows behind our back.

And this is precisely why this channel has come under such attack. Those who are getting truly close to Jesus, in this pure and worshipful way, are getting empowered to overcome their petty likes and dislikes, in order to love one another more than themselves. And it is CLOSING DOORS. And the demons can't enter so easily anymore. Instead of reacting in resentment, we react in supernatural love. The door remains shut and the demons don't have permission to oppress us, so they wait and wait and wait...provoking us with one thing after another until we finally crack.

Satan is angry, guys! And threatened by anyone who has a pure and intimate relationship with Jesus. He is furious and anyone who teaches this is going to get persecution.

Can you imagine it? A soul such as Kari Jobe being accused of carnal lyrics in the song, "The More I Seek You?" This song talks about a spiritual love affair with God...exactly like John the Evangelist had with Jesus. John was leaning on the Lord's heart. John 13:23

And here are the lyrics to "The More I Seek You":

I wanna sit at your feet,
Drink from the cup in your hand.
Lay back against you and breathe, feel your heart beat
This love is so deep, it's more than I can stand.
I melt in your peace, it's overwhelming.

This is a powerful, living picture of a soul totally in love with God...and she is leading others into this place of purity and intimacy. But she gets accused of eroticism here??? This again is a religious spirit, the very same one at work when the Pharisees said,

..." the synagogue leader was indignant that Jesus had healed on the Sabbath. "There are six days for work, he told the crowd. "So come and be healed on those days and not on the Sabbath." "You hypocrites!" the Lord replied, "Does not each of you on the Sabbath untie his ox or donkey from the stall and lead it to water?...Luke 13:14-15

Did not the Lord Jesus allow John to rest his head on His bosom and hear His heartbeat??

I'm not even going to venture a guess to the motives of such unscriptural criticism, but the result is to discourage people from falling in Love, purely, with God. And resting in Him, so He may bring about fresh healing, infilling and anointing. This is where the power is!

This is where the power to overcome our flesh comes from. The Trinity fills us with their love, strength, wisdom and anointing during this kind of intimate prayer time. When we've been in the presence of the Lord and the anointing is really flowing, we are feeling wonderful. And it's no problem to come from prayer and overlook these silly little things, loving our brother more than we love ourselves. In fact, we are so in love, we see it as an opportunity to love Jesus Himself. We don't open a door to pride and selfishness, because we are filled with brotherly love in God's presence.

That's why Satan is persecuting us and every other channel or movement that teaches purity and intimacy in Jesus' presence. The demons take things out of context, twist them and put lies in people's heads. If they have purity issues themselves or are captive to lust or pornography, they assign unclean motives to pure vessels and spread lies which cause the innocent new Christians to be afraid they are going to Hell for loving Jesus in purity and innocence.

These are those spoken of in 2 Timothy 3:5 "...having a form of godliness, but denying its power." And very often persecuting those filled with the Holy Spirit, with the evidence of speaking in tongues, as well.

They just aren't aware of the damage they are doing. So all we can do is forgive them and pray God will open their eyes to His Power and coming into His intimate presence in absolute purity and passionate brotherly love, which is how He feels about us.

Without being filled by the power of Holy Spirit and the rivers of Living Waters flowing from the Heart of Jesus, Christians, young and old, can't resist being critical and selfish. They can't stop opening doors with judgment, pride, and selfishness. So, the demons rejoice and move right in every time they fail in charity. And they become seriously oppressed and critical of everyone and everything good. Not taking into account the fruit of ministries. Only finding fault and destroying the faith of new Christians who are innocently hungering for God.

When we fall in love with Jesus, we never want to hurt Him again. When we give our lives to Jesus out of fear of Hell, we don't live in His love - we act out of fear, which after a while fades. But who among us wants to live with someone we are afraid of 24-7? Fear causes us to be suspicious, legalistic, rigid and living a false Christian faith out of rules -not love.

I am telling you all these things so you will understand: we are in a war and our soul is the booty. When I don't get enough sweet trysting time with Jesus, I get tired, crabby, impatient, judgmental, etc. etc. Then I open the doors and oppression comes literally flying in.

So, how do we get rid of these doors?

Number ONE is a commitment to holiness and charity. Then, we must fill up on the passionate love Jesus has for us and let Him heal our wounded spirits and souls by coming into worship and resting in His presence. Allowing Him to take us on a journey to Heaven, or a walk - or even letting you rest your head over His heart. These are times of precious loving, bonding and filling with grace. When we see how much He loves us, we begin to accept ourselves for who we are, and others for who they are, and lay down the scalpels of criticism.

We must first be able to love ourselves, or jealousy and fear will predominate in our relationships with one another. When you feel good, you don't want to criticize anyone. When you feel lousy about yourself, everyone is a pain.

So, recognize your faults. Repent of them, asking God's forgiveness and strength to go and sin no more. Renounce these spirits out loud, go into worship and praise. Let the music express your heart to Him. Rest in the words, lifting them up to. If you encounter Jesus, rest in Him. Fill up on His presence - whether you see Him or not.

The Scripture says, "I inhabit the praises of My People Psalm" 22:3

So, based on that one Scripture alone, we know - when we are praising Him, that He is with us. He's there!

"Come into His courts with thanksgiving and praise." Psalm 100:4

"Through Jesus, therefore, let us continually offer to God a sacrifice of praise, the fruit of our lips that give thanks to His Name." Hebrews 13:15

"Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls." Matthew 11:28-29

"For thus said the Lord God, the Holy One of Israel... "In returning and rest you will be saved, in quietness and trust is your strength." Isaiah 30:15

When we come out of worship, we should feel refreshed, for we have touched the hem of His garment and grace has gone out of Him into us. He has given us many teachings about this intimacy & purity.

Then let's practice the Love we feel on others. When we start to get irritated, let's stop right there and ask Holy Spirit to deliver us from our bad habit. Once we get tired of demonic oppression, we will be spurred to keep ourselves from these sinful attitudes.

Guys, I've been experiencing this for the last week. And I want to tell you, that I am tired of my sins! For more reason than one...

If the doors are opened...seek God as to why. Sometimes He will even give you a Rhema or two as to why. Then repent and renounce that attitude. Close the doors and bind the demons in the Name of Jesus, and send the whole mess to the abyss.

Take authority over the energy corrals that cause distraction, isolation, etc. "In the Name of Jesus, I command these corrals to come down. I command these blocks to go to the abyss. I bind (and use the name of the demon) and command you, in Jesus Name, to go to the abyss and never return or send for reinforcements."

It is no wonder we have been horrifically attacked this week, guys. Satan didn't want this message broadcast. But now you are armed with a powerful arsenal of tools against the oppressions you and your family have been suffering for years. Please take it to heart and remember this teaching, "As you judge so shall judgment be meted out to you."

Do not judge others with your spouse or any other person or family member. Isn't it just so "natural" that when we've been attacked or wounded by something done to us or our loved ones - the first response is to attack those who did it, verbally criticizing them? THE DEMONS COUNT ON THIS KNEE JERK REACTION! They come with arrows in their hands that they pass out to our closest friends. And if they are weak, they use them. You then react and discuss their bad behavior, criticizing them back and forth with your children, parents or spouse. And that's it. All of you just opened personal doors and now each of you will suffer oppression for this.

There is no other solution to this than to love.

That is why Jesus commanded us, "Love one another as I have loved you." John 15:12 And how did He love the Pharisees? "Father, forgive them, they know not what they do." Luke 23:34

So, let us be worthy of His name, not just on the surface where everyone can see, but deep down inside, for it is written:

"Do you not yet realize that whatever enters the mouth goes into the stomach and then is eliminated? But the things that come out of the mouth come from the heart, and these things defile a man. For out of the heart come wicked reasonings, murders, adulteries, whorings, thefts, false witnessings and slanders." Matthew 15:17-19

Just to illustrate this point, this happened last night, as a matter of fact. I went grieving to the Lord because I could fast from everything but my Frappacino protein drink, which I enjoy so much. And He answered me, "Do away with your critical spirit and I will ignore your Frappe as if it didn't exist and you were fasting before Me on bread and water."

Wow!

And then the Scripture: You have heard that it was said, 'Do not commit adultery.' But I tell you that anyone who looks at a woman to lust after her has already committed adultery with her in his heart." Matthew 5:27-28

And I want to apply the principle in this verse of Scripture to talking about others. This could be applied to any sin, "Do not criticize one another; anyone who does, has assaulted the soul of another in his heart."

Now, I have seen what criticism does people, in the spirit. It leaves a soul ripped and bloody and sometimes even crucified. This is why the penalty is so heavy. The devils are God's policemen. He allows them to attack, because we have attacked others.

Ezekiel and I had a very turbulent marriage for 12 years. It was REALLY hard. Until we figured it out. The minute after we thought badly about anyone - whether they were innocent or guilty, whether we inferred it or merely thought and discussed it - we got into an argument that ruined the rest of our day. The Lord was training us. It's true.

So, He was very strict with us, and anyone wanting to grow spiritually must conquer this evil before they can go anywhere with the anointing.

You walk away from these incidents wounded inside, whether someone said it to you out loud, said it behind your back or merely thought it. A poisoned arrow of condemnation goes right to the heart and lodges there, making the soul spiritually sick. That opens the demon's door to those that assaulted you and they come under oppression. Then you get home and discuss it with your wife or husband or mother/father, and react in pain - criticizing them. Now, with ONE arrow, Satan has opened the doors of all these people, so that they'll be oppressed.

"Be wise as serpents, gentle as doves. Love one another as I have loved you," Jesus commanded. (Matt. 10:16) He was at that moment arming us for every battle we would ever have in life. Blessed will we be if we obey Him.

Lord, help us! Amen.
