

Jesus says... Do not be satisfied with past Accomplishments... You have the Truth, which the Unsaved desperately long for

August 16, 2016 - Words from Jesus to Sister Clare

Clare began... Rejoice, Heartdwellers! We are moving ahead into a new day - and exceptional gifts will be given to those who press in. May His courage and stamina be with us.

We are going up the mountain, Heartdwellers. The Lord is beginning with housecleaning, repentance and an amendment of life. He wants us to live for Him and not for ourselves. He is preparing us for the next move of His Holy Spirit and it requires new levels of honesty with ourselves and others. It requires a water-tight ship that Satan cannot target and sink, because the hull was compromised by sin. Jesus wants to give us the power gifts that bring healing and restoration to our sick and broken souls. Then we will go out and heal and deliver in His Power.

So, this season is a time of preparation. A time for housecleaning and repairs, so that all the graces He wants to equip us with will be safely locked in a house, with the foundation of Love covered by the roof of Humility.

Lord, is there something on Your Heart for us?

(Jesus) "Always. I always have something for My Bride. My people, these times are growing in darkness like never before. The Devil knows his time is short and he has accelerated his attacks and uses more clever technological means to drag souls to Hell. And what is yet to come is even more terrible than in past centuries.

"So, I am preparing those who hunger and thirst for righteousness and long to be used in My Kingdom. But as always, before one can fill a vessel, it must be cleansed of impurities and repaired where it's been damaged.

"Gone are the days when prayer easily puts the enemy to flight. Now their orders are to persevere against you, until the target is utterly defeated. In other words, the enemy is out to kill you and steal everything you've been given.

"You cannot run and hide from this; you must present yourself ready and willing on the battlefield. Retreat is not an option. Remember I told you that the cowardly cannot inherit the Kingdom of God. (Revelation 21:8) You have to be willing to fight.

"I know many of you are older and tired; even very tired. But when you press in -doing it anyway, I will be faithful to regenerate all you have lost in My service.

"You must learn to keep walking when you've been shot, and go back for your brother who is lying wounded in the trench. I'm calling for a new level of commitment and service from you all. As always, the benefits will be 'out of this world'. But I am deeply blessed, for My People are not mercenaries. No, they are dedicated shepherds and shepherdesses.

"And as you press in and are called up higher, into more fierce battlefields, you will be fully equipped and protected with all that is necessary. Rely more and more on My Holy Spirit, and less and less on your own prowess and experience. The enemy is far more experienced at these battles, and only by relying totally on My Spirit for direction and arming, shall you do valiantly.

"Is there anything too hard for Me? No, I say, there is not. So, do not allow the perimeters of the past determine your future. Rather, keep your eyes on Me and I will lead you into new territory to take for the Kingdom.

"My People, the unsaved are desperately calling for Truth. You have what they are longing for. Move forward in complete confidence that where I lead, I equip - and expect to do things unheard of in the past. I am with you. Confidently move forward into new anointings. Do not be satisfied with the past, lest you fall asleep at the wheel, while others move forward into their dreams."

"Remember... I am with you. I will equip you. If I've put it in your heart to do, and it's one of your dreams, we're going to move forward and accomplish it. In My power and anointing."
