

DONALD TRUMP ELECTED - Prophetic Dream

August 10th, 2016 - Dream of Sister Clare
Spoken by Jackie on October 15th, 2016

Wow, Heartdwellers - I just had an incredible dream, with the signature of the Holy Spirit, that Donald Trump won the election.

I'm going to share with you exactly how it unfolded.

In the first part of the dream, I was at the polls and there were 7 machines up in the front of this room - all the different people that were there to count the votes. And waiting in line to vote were very, very simple and plain people.

A man came into the room, dressed in a business suit, and he walked over and he said, "Before we do any voting, let's check out these machines and see if they're valid." And he went and he looked at each one of the machines. And there was an error on every machine - including the last machine, that allowed you to vote 3 times. He announced that to everyone. He said, "Look at this! This machine has an error. This machine has an error. THIS machine has an error. And this one, you can vote three times!"

And all the people just stared at him. But then, a hush fell over the room. The little people, the ones that were waiting in line to vote, they all took out a piece of paper and they wrote Donald Trump's name on it. And each one stepped up to a machine, and they put that slip of paper - I guess they brought little boxes or baskets - they put that slip of paper on the floor. They refused to use the voting machines, because they knew they were corrupt.

And then, in the next scene of the dream, the polls had closed and it came time for counting the votes. And in this scene, different people sat down to count the votes, and then the people that checked to make sure that it's honest, the count is honest...they sat down with these papers votes, and they started to count them. And one girl who was counting them, a young woman that was counting them, started counting them before the Trump delegate had a chance to sit down and monitor it. So, she came up to her, and she said, "No. Don't start until I'm sitting here." And so, the girl kinda gave her a nasty look, and she sat down and they went through the votes together. One person's vote had spelled the name "Trump" wrong, and she was going to throw that vote out, because the name was spelled incorrectly. She was going to pitch it out. And the other woman said, "I know this lady. And I know she voted for Trump. And you can't just throw that out!"

In the next scene, it switched to a very expensive dining hall, with white tablecloths and flowers - the whole nine yards. Mr. Obama was sitting at one of the tables. I believe it was Michelle came running in and told him, "It's good! It's good! We're ahead 2 to 1 at the polls!" So, it's my guess that Obama's planning on running for a third term, and this whole smear with Hillary is just part of the big deception, putting him in that position.

He looked troubled, and everyone was trying to cheer him up, saying "Yay"...

And I just want to say here that, I know there've been rumors that Obama was going to stay in the White House for a third term, but the Lord never verified that to me. You know, He chooses different people for different messages. So, if He gave that information, a prophetic word to someone else - that's fine. But I have to stick with what He gives me. And this is the first indication that I've had that he would be running again for president.

Well then, about 5 minutes later, in walks a man, very unassumingly. And apparently, she (Michelle) was the one who was supposed to announce it. He told her who had won the presidential election, and her jaw just dropped. Her face just fell! And she said something like, some kind of a stinging remark. She looked at Mr. Obama and his face dropped.

And then the scene changed immediately to a little airport, like a little, podunk airport with a small group of people. And I was with these people. And we were waiting for our future president to arrive. And it seems like he did come in on a large jet, but he came to a place that no-one would have expected him to come to. And we saw him walking from the plane to the place where he would give the acceptance speech.

When I looked at him, he was SO HUMBLLED. I just couldn't believe how humbled the man was, I almost felt like he was in tears. Because the voice of the people had spoken. And they had chosen him.

And that's where the dream ended.
