

Jesus speaks about Pride, Trust & Caution

November 8 & 10, 2017 - Words from Jesus to Sister Clare

Jesus began... "Do not be put off by discouragement. It is only temporary, if you will press through to Me and call upon Me for help. Fatigue, disappointment, opposition - all these things are merely smoke-screens to knock you out of your calling. I will help you if you will turn to Me wholeheartedly, and not rely on your feelings or senses, but walk by Faith, fully persuaded that what I have given you to do, I have also equipped you to do."

"This Channel and all its offshoots are targets for the enemy. He is counting on your low self-esteem and self-opinion to stop you. When you are humble, you are not counting on yourself but on Me, so that shouldn't work for you--unless you are undertaking this work in Pride, in which case it was not Me who gave it to you. All of you will have to fight off temptations to Pride, but I chose you because you are aware of your faults, that being the chief one."

"But if all you live for is to impress others, I did not give you an assignment. That would put you in harm's way, lest you fall - seriously."

"The enemy is counting on your failures of the past to cause you to quit. But you are here, now - and you have learned that with Me, all things are possible. Cling to that, Beloved, cling to My omnipotence and you will be unstoppable."

"Get up now, dust yourself off and begin again. We are doing this together. You are not alone as you have seen yourself in the past. I will carry you through to success if only you will put your complete trust in My Hands."

Message from November 10, 2017

(Clare) Thank You, Lord, for a husband's discernment and Your gentle correction. May we always hearken to Your voice through our spouse. Amen

Well, I went rushing ahead and I was irritated with myself because I hadn't gotten into prayer right away, in the early part of the evening. And Jesus wanted me to slow down and consult with Him. Thank God for my husband. He caught it. I said... I'm sorry, Lord. Everyone is more important than you. This is outrageous and I am disgusted with myself at this point. How You tolerate me, I will never know.

Jesus replied... "But I do--with great love. And I am pleased that you listened to your husband. I tried to get your attention, but you've been too busy to listen. This is not good, dearest, we need to change this. The timing for everything is not quite ready yet. So, I want you to continue to work on music and messages and pay particular attention to the hurting souls."

(Clare) What can I say, Lord? I am sorry.

(Jesus) "This is not easy for you. You tend to plow into things just to get them done. But you must be much, much more careful and move more slowly in making decisions. The devils are always in a hurry, trying to make sure you speed into something, before you discover it's the wrong direction. On the other hand, I am always gentle and balanced."

I don't know how I do it. It isn't what I want. I want to move more slowly--and I am especially missing You because of this volume of work on my shoulders.

(Jesus) "It's a lie, Clare. You have the time. You just need to be careful not to waste it or get distracted. All that glitters is not gold... and it is good to be ignorant of many things, for those who wish to cultivate a single-minded heart."

"This is one of the tactics of the enemy I wish for you to talk about. This sense of having to rush and plow through is a very popular tactic to cause My vessels to make wrong choices. It is popular, because it is successful. But I would rather all of you, My Brides, would do nothing rather than run ahead because you feel pressured. Procrastination is not a good thing, but rushing into things is not good either. I wish for a balanced approach, plenty of prayer and double discernment."

"The more important the work, the more carefully you must lay the foundation. This will save you countless mistakes that could lead you off into a very destructive side-track."

(Clare) Things seemed to fall together so well, Lord. It never occurred to me that it wasn't Your timing. I was busy focusing on how long it had taken me to respond to Your request and I was so glad I was finally doing it.

(Jesus) "Ezekiel was right in saying it is a matter of timing. And I do like little things best, My Love. It is truly a matter of timing. You need more time to create music and this really would have taken you away from just that. Rest in Me, Clare. I know what is best and when it is best."

"The main point I want to get across to you, My Heartdwellers, is now that some of you have caught the vision and anointing, be careful not to rush into anything. Be careful about each step forward, because the enemy sets traps. If he can't get you to procrastinate or avoid implementing the vision and gifts I have given you, he will rush you into things that were not meant to be or cause you to be so tied up in this new direction that you neglect the important things that are already in your lives."

"I had spoken to Clare before about being on the radio. And she has carried guilt, because she couldn't get into it for so long. And when she did have the opportunity, she was careless and did not take great care in discerning if this was My timing and My choice for her."

"She won't do that again. But once is all it takes to derail a mission. One wrong direction can waste days, months and even years. So, be careful, because the enemy will try to rush you into things."

"But I am very pleased with those of you that are moving forward carefully and finally using your gifts and dedicating yourselves to the work. This is SO pleasing to Me, but so threatening to the enemy - so he will undoubtedly try to derail you."

"Just be on your guard and move forward carefully. Always remember... I do not rush you into anything, but the enemy does. This is a warning sign for you, a flashing yellow light... Be careful! Danger ahead!"
