

Jesus says... Do not presume to know everything & Your Sufferings are not in vain

February 4 & 7, 2018 - Words from Jesus to Sister Clare

Lord, You are faithful beyond all reckoning. Thank You for carrying us over the thresholds of suffering and being a continual comfort to us. Well, my dearest Heartdwellers, thank you so much for your prayers; they were greatly needed and I'm feeling much better.

Ezekiel went through a very rough spell with pain, and well, what can I say? How do you feel when the one you love is suffering terribly? That brought me to tears many, many nights. And finally, there was nothing left of me. Between running the little errands that are so necessary when someone is in bed, trying to make them comfortable. And praying with tears and not seeing solid results for a very long while—it was just too much for me.

And I woke up the morning after his worst suffering and there was nothing left of me. And the prospect of seeing him suffer again caused me to break out in tears and I cried myself back to sleep. I was completely depleted.

As for how to explain what is going on, just as we fast and make other sacrifices to accompany our petitions, he offered himself as a living sacrifice for the reform of the nation and the release of the little children being tortured and abused in the sex trafficking trade.

I will share with you that there were wonderful consolations for Ezekiel in between the sufferings. Many trips to Heaven, many periods of extreme bliss (and no, it wasn't medication, 'cause he didn't HAVE any). When he was in our small pool, the Lord was with him, holding him up and kissing his forehead many times with great tenderness.

There was also relief from the pain and moments of extreme joy in communion with the Lord. This follows the patterns of many suffering servants. Our dear Jesus suffers with us, but still finds ways to shower delightful consolations on us in times of respite.

The Lord treated him so tenderly after these bouts of extreme suffering and showed him some of the fruits of his labor. For truly, bearing up under this kind of pain IS a labor!

And He told him... "This is the most productive time of your whole life. You have done more here to advance the Kingdom of God and rescue souls, than in all your years of your ministry combined."

Wow! In addition to the consolation of Jesus telling Ezekiel 'well done', I believe we have turned a corner and are moving towards a complete healing.

Whatever God's timing, dear ones, we receive it with resolve that as long as God's grace accompanies us, we will persevere. I have not, in the slightest, wavered from the Lord's promise of Ezekiel being healed of these issues. Truly, when Jesus announced to me what we would be going through, He made a promise... "You will not be afraid for his life, for I have promised you I will heal him and you will also have peace in all circumstances, as a sign to you that My promise is true, and I am with you."

And I have indeed, had supernatural peace that cannot be ruffled by circumstances, as far as the threat of death goes. I know our Satanist friends would love to see him dead. There have been many death assignments and demons of death dropping in for a visit. But they all left empty-handed, because they are not in charge here... Jesus is.

Some of you my, dear Heartdwellers, have questions and doubts about this doctrine of sharing in the sufferings of the Cross for the sake of the Kingdom. But truly, it is only a matter of perspective.

When you examine the Scriptures thoroughly and very carefully, you will see that this IS in the Bible. If you are more attached to the opinions of those in your current ministries that do not allow for suffering, I would ask you to set yours and their opinions to the side, and seek the counsel of Holy Spirit, Who will confirm to you the principals behind the cross Jesus told us to carry.

I believe it is the height of presumption to say that a prayer and faith is all it takes to heal every soul, no matter what. That Jesus heals everyone in our timing — no matter what. And if you didn't get healed, you have hidden sin or are lacking in faith. Only God knows why He did not manifest a healing on the one we prayed for.

Jesus began... "The hour is late and you have done well to explain many things to My children."

"Do not presume to know everything, My dear ones, because others who teach you convince you that they know everything. Rather, test the spirits and be open to His leading, even when it puts you in opposition to others who hold fast to their doctrines. Do not allow yourself to compromise truth for the sake of support or friendship; rather, be ready to lose friends rather than compromise on the truth that My Spirit convicts you with."

"As much as I would love to see peace among brethren, I told you that I did not come to bring peace but a sword and division."

In Matthew 10:34 it says... "No, I have not come to bring peace but a sword! For I have come to set a man against his own father, a daughter against her own mother, and a daughter-in-law ..."

"And what is the sword I am referring to here? It is the Word of God, dividing bone from marrow and exposing the hidden things. Those who value their social status above My Truth will be left in the dust as My faithful Bride cleaves to Me and not to any man."

"Be strong, courageous and cleave to Me beyond all persons or things. I will never lead you astray. Discern, My dearly loved ones, discern through the power of My Holy Spirit; discern Truth and cleave to that."

"Please don't grow weary, but finish your appointed course. For God is faithful to reward those who keep their hands on the plow and keep moving forward."

(Clare) I KNOW it's hard — believe me, I know it is so hard. We all have thoughts tempting us to give up, but the Lord does come to our rescue to strengthen us. So, lets hold hands with one another in prayer and continue to carry the cross He has given each of us. I love you dearly, Family. Thank you so much for your prayers.

Message from February 7, 2018 - Jesus says... Your Sufferings are not in vain

Jesus began... "My children, the evil in this world is beyond your ability to imagine. It is so subtle and unrecognizable from the surface, and I have many such warriors who take on the sufferings of these little ones to release them from their agonizing prison of hopelessness. So many of them are homebound and unable to lead normal lives, (He's talking about the intercessors here) but they find their total fulfillment in living for others and interceding."

"These will be queens and kings in Heaven and be given many responsibilities to shoulder for their brothers and sisters, whether in Heaven or on Earth. My Body is one and we are all interconnected. When one rejoices, all rejoice. When one suffers, we all suffer. In this way, suffering is not overpowering but spread broadly across the Body."

"That is why these weeks have been so difficult for you. Many are suffering for the world and the American nation, and exactly how it will impact the world when the cleansing is finally completed."

"You are going through a great process of purification here in America, yet the world shares in your suffering. This has been given a name... 'The Union of Saints' or 'the Great Cloud of Witnesses.'"

"Many false doctrines and lies have been proposed and accepted by gullible souls, without questioning their veracity. And all of these teachings that are most effective in combating evil have been given the worst name by distorting certain facts to make them look like heresy."

"As a result, many highly opinionated Christians are totally ignorant about the teachings that came from the early church in Antioch and Jerusalem in the first century. Satan has deliberately targeted these to deprive you of the support and prayers of the whole Body under My headship."

"In Heaven, this will no longer be a mystery to you. But those among you now who are discerning and continually dying to yourself for the sake of Truth—if you search the teachings of the Church Fathers, you will discover a treasure trove of truth that will sustain you in many battles and pave the way for deeper holiness. And you will also find much opposition with the 'status quo' church."

"In any case, My children, I have come to tell you once again... your sufferings are not in vain. Many of you have made great sacrifices in prayer and participated in the deliverance of many souls headed for Hell, without your awareness of being involved."

"This is what I love about this Channel. You are not looking for the increase the world has to offer, but rather to the increase in your likeness of Me, the crucified one. Those who have died with Me will also rise, as I did, in glory for an eternity beyond your capability of imagining."
