

Jesus explains... Divine Love & Human Love

To the names day of a young soul - May 28 1841

1. To the one, who has a masculine name, and is a daughter of Ans. H. and who celebrates the not very significant names day of her earthly name - write to her the following word from Me, so she may again recognize the voice of her Father, which she had often heard in her cradle, that's why she was quite tearful, if the sweet voice of the Father wouldn't come forth speedily.
2. Gabriela! Has My fatherly voice become foreign to you? Do you not love Me anymore, as you have loved Me in your cradle?
3. My dear Gabriela! You mustn't forget Me! And you shall not, through the window, throw your eyes and heart, with a yearning for marriage, after some slender young men, namely today after this one, tomorrow after another, and the day after tomorrow after the third one etc.. But instead, remember Me always and throw your eyes and heart after Me, and love only one! And this one am I, your holy and loving Father.
4. In this solely righteous love, you will live happily here for now, and then eternally in the bosom of your Father!
5. Look, dear Gabriela, the human love is of no use, if it doesn't stem from My love.
6. Now, if you, out of Me, wish to lean towards someone, observe first, if he possesses My love! - If he does possess it, so he is equal to you and the next one for your heart. - But if he doesn't, consider him as an erring brother, who still wanders between heaven and hell and directs his eyes more towards the abyss of the eternal night than towards Me, the 'father', which is still completely unknown to him.
7. The righteous, loving, light one will turn you towards the light, from where you and the loving bright one came. - But the one, who is exploring the abyss will turn your eyes there, where he has turned his own. Once the dark abyss has consumed his eyesight, he will fall into the abyss at his next step, and his fall will force you to fall with him. And then, it will be quite difficult to find you within the abyss of the night again, as well as to loose you from the chains, which the evil love for the world would have forged around your tender heart a thousandfold.
8. Therefore, my dear Gabriela, love only Me! Yes, be or fall in love with Me completely, in the same way as Magdalena! And with the heart look only after the one, that I, filled with My love, will introduce to you! Everyone else respect and love, insofar he also is a human being!
9. Be compassionate with the poor and pray to Me, your God and Father, for the badly erring and falling one, thus you will be My dear and happy Gabriela completely - here and there, in My bosom, forever!
10. May this message be a invaluable gift to you for your earthly names day! - And while again perceiving your own, inner name, remember that I, your eternal, holy, and most loving Father, am never far from you, now and forever! Amen.
11. Remember Me, dear Gabriela! I, your Father, am telling you, that you are My dear Gabriela, and shall remain so, forever! - Amen, Amen, Amen.
