

Jesus says... Beware of Compromises & Abide in the Vine

May 23 & 29, 2018 - Words from Jesus to Sister Clare

(Clare) Thank You, Jesus, for the warning. Please grant us the vision and grace necessary to avoid these attacks. Amen.

To my most precious veteran Heartdwellers. There is an attack coming from the enemy against those of us who have been on the Channel for a very long time. But here's the warning: it is going to begin with something so small and subtle that you will not recognize it when it begins. At least, not without God's Grace. Please be on extreme alert for the little foxes that spoil the vine. One little decision can have HUGE repercussions, so be on the lookout for what the enemy's up to. Forewarned is forearmed.

Jesus began... "I love you so much, Clare. And I am committed to bringing you to the phase of spirituality that you desire with all your heart. This is why I allow these things. It is not to punish you, but as you said, to use as a steering fence to keep you safe from the vipers and scorpions."

"You and I have a truly beautiful relationship, and part of that beauty is My promise to keep you on the right track. Each one of you Heartdwellers have the same wonderful relationship, and you've spoken your hearts to Me so many times, that permission to correct you is a given. This way, I keep you tucked into My Heart where the abundant life of love and wisdom flow out upon the world."

"Do not compromise. As Clare learns again and again, there is nothing in this world worth having if it is against My will and best interests for you."

"You can fudge and manipulate, but sooner or later I will have to lower the boom, so to speak, and bring you back to My Heart—to your first love."

"Cleave to Me, dear ones, and reject the setups and temptations the enemy has laid for you. Understand he is very subtle. Examine the fruits in the long run. Is there a temptation hidden there? Never over-estimate your strength in the face of temptation."

"If you are listening very carefully, you will hear My warning either in your head or in your gut. Pay attention to that, and stop it at the entrance, and it will not expand to produce rotten fruit in your hearts."

"I am for you. I am with you. I am in love with each and every one of you! And there is nothing I will withhold from you if it is good for you to have it. Trust Me. Listen for My cautions. Consider the repercussions in the long run. And if there is a possibility of compromise, reject it straight out—close the door on it. Walk away from it. RUN away from it!"

"Don't I mean more to you than that? Be firm, be strong, be courageous. All the prayers in the world will be of no avail if you compromise and let it get a stronghold in your life. Beware of the young lions. This is a secret... when you are faithful to think through things and fully obey Me, I protect you from serious consequences. I love you. I am with you. I hold you. Only, be faithful to listen carefully and obey."

(Clare) Oh, my dear ones. I just couldn't resist! I was just 'bouncing' this to my desktop and going on the Net to look for an image for this, and this rhema came up.

"Persevere in the things you've begun with the Holy Spirit. Do not forsake your perfection, as happens with some souls. But avoid all the snares of darkness. Strive always for the more perfect things."

Amen? Amen! What a beautiful confirmation. Thank you, Holy Spirit.

Message from May 29, 2018

Jesus began... "My dear ones, be patient with Clare as she applies herself to My mandate to sing. It will not be her voice alone that will be coming to you, but My very special anointing, to go deep into your souls and hold your attention. To the articles of our faith. To the battle plans of the enemy — which hinge almost totally on how well you protect Virtue in your lives and keep doors shut."

"All of you have had substantial losses over the past few months and much heartache. I am wanting to turn that around now. But I ask of you, please... keep up your prayers for your president and the world. Please be ruthless with yourselves in identifying lapses in virtue or compromising your faith. And especially making compromises with the world when you know in your hearts that I do not approve of certain things."

"Your safety and right to exercise your mission and ministry depend very much on the life of virtue you lead. If you have a wonderful gift to cultivate, understand it will not move forward very far if you are compromising. When you open doors, the enemy rushes in and you have to stop the creative work to brandish the sword and repent for failures. This sets the work back."

"It is a privilege to be used in ministry of any kind. But this privilege gets suspended when you have to drop everything to fight your way through each day."

"This is why I admonish you to stay pure and faithful to My known wishes for each of you, particularly, so that you keep the doors shut tight and your defense is seamless. The moment you compromise, gossip, judge, spend money you shouldn't, let duties get behind—when you do these things, you open doors and it makes it doubly hard for you to keep going, let alone expand into the beautiful callings on your lives."

"Oh, My Loves! Do spend ample time with Me. How I long for your company. The Branch can only bear fruit when it is attached to the Vine. And the enemy has made great inroads with many of you who have not been vigilant in protecting our trysting time."

"The more you long to be with Me, the more you give in to that longing—the deeper, wider and fuller your anointing becomes. Because we are One in each other and I labor through you to bring forth the fruits of salvation and sanctity in your lives and the lives of your families."

"So, if you are feeling flat or dry, please remember: the Branch can bring forth no fruit unless it remains healthy, drawing its life from the Vine."

"I am the vine and you are the branches. The one who remains in Me, and I in him, will bear much fruit. For apart from Me you can do nothing" John 15:5
