

Jesus says... Cherish My little Tokens of Love & Come to Me daily in Dwelling Prayer

July 16, 2019 - Words from Jesus to Sister Clare

(Clare) 'Thank You, Jesus, for convincing us of Your dedicated and tender, unconditional love for us.' Well, dear Heartdwellers, there is a plague of depression, unbelief, self-hatred and all that goes with it circulating in the Body of Christ. And we must rise up and protect ourselves every day. Lord, what do You have for us?

Jesus began... "My people whom I love with all My heart, you have been listening to lies and slander about My character. You've been told you are a hopeless loser in My eyes, and I want nothing to do with you. You've been told that your sins are so grievous that I will not fellowship with you. You've been told that your worship is in vain, because you are so sinful. You've been told that I don't hear and answer your prayers. You've been told that you are not a Bride and won't be taken in the Rapture.

"When I see them feeding you these lies, I weep. I cry out, "No! No! No! These are all lies! And I try to coax you to put your dwelling music on and let me speak My love into your heart from this music. I remind you to put the full armor on. And when I do, the demons shout out, 'Oh, that's for kids; that stuff doesn't work at all! Don't waste your time.'

"Not true! The Armor works. Those are more lies! As Mother Clare has said, that helmet is your salvation. By covering yourself with that, you save your mind from the poisonous lies that suck the life and inspiration right out of you. I gave you these weapons, because I knew you would need them to survive the treacherous tactics of the enemy. Who has no scruples, and loves to hit you below the belt and sucker punch you to the ground, leaving you conquered by fears and insecurities.

"This is why you must cultivate a deep relationship with Me. Worship drives the enemy away. And the songs I choose to play for you build your faith up and your understanding of how precious you are to Me. But none of these will work if you do not avail yourself of dwelling prayer and reading of Scripture, holy books and rhemas.

"There are scores of ways you can hear from Me, every single day. It could be the melodious song of a bird at a critical moment, where I am reminding you that I am truly with you. It could be a rock on the ground, shaped like a heart. It could be an exquisite flower that just bloomed in your yard. It could be a phone call from a friend. But you must be listening VERY CAREFULLY."

"If you are rushing through your day, and you miss the heart I made in your coffee when you put the creamer in, you will not receive that consolation I sent you to remind you... 'I love you'. Yes, I am saying... 'I love you and I'm with you. And I see your pain, and I'm here.' It could be My image in the bark of a tree, or even an iridescent oil stain on the wet pavement. It could be a bumper sticker or one of your animals coming and licking your feet. All of these are God-sent rhemas to express My real-time concern for you in that moment.

"But so many of you miss these precious love letters I scatter throughout your day. Please. When you see something precious, it is no coincidence; I sent that to comfort you. Take a photo of it or pick it up and take it home. Cherish these little tokens of My love. I give them to you to get your attention and lift your spirits.

"Do you suppose Satan is more powerful in discouraging you than I am in lifting you up? Don't think that way for one moment! For every ugly word his minions speak over you, I speak a blessing. You heard the criticism, but did you hear the blessing I neutralized it with? Many times I just speak one or two words into your mind that cause you to reflect on a certain Scripture. I want you to pay attention to that and declare that very Scripture over that word curse that just went through your mind.

"My Spirit is constantly pouring out affirmations over you, but rarely do you hear them. Why? Because the critical remarks of the demons cause you to withdraw and cover your head and ears - to the point where you feel ashamed, tuck your tail and just hide so you can't face Me.

"Do you see, children? Do you see that all day long venom is being injected into your mind, unless you have protected it? I want you to be aware that the enemy never sleeps. He is always plotting his moves to bring you down. Always be on the lookout for days when you suddenly become angry. Whether it is justified or not, be aware that he is going to use you to deliver a crushing blow to a soul who is already hanging onto dear life with everything they've got. Don't give voice to that anger but assess the situation to make sure you're not being set up to snuff out a smoldering wick.

"My children, My people, understand that condemnation is in the air you breathe, so prolific are the demons in these last days. There has been a significant increase in assignments to condemn. That is why your feet must be shod with the Gospel of Peace. Rather than running to and fro, irritated. Angry. Disappointed. Starting rumors, strife and unrest, you must be ambassadors of My Peace and Love. Consider yourselves the shoulder humanity has to cry on. Consider yourself the one person I have sent into this day and place that can redeem the heartache of someone around you.

"This is why you MUST have dwelling prayer every morning. This is why you must listen to uplifting Scriptural music. This is why you must pray continually and keep your minds free from negativity. The fiery darts never stop, so if your mind is idle, they can more easily find a place to lodge. Continually thinking of Me, praising Me, thanking Me and seeing the good in others is a tremendous defense from the evil insinuations of the enemy. You know for a fact, if your peace is broken, it has been done by the enemy. If your peace is restored, it is My Spirit at work within you.

"These words I have spoken to you today are spirit and life. If you put into practice what I am saying, your days can be joyful in any circumstance, because you know you are loved, wanted and used by Me to bring My light and love into the darkness that surrounds you. Please. They are not idle words. They are the counsels of life, and those who heed them will know My presence in any situation.

"I bless you now to remember and put them into practice. I am with you. Fear nothing - we walk as One and My love for you is constant. When you fall, I bend over and help you up. Do not run from Me, run TO Me. Do not be so ashamed that you fell that you want to run and hide. Know that I love you no matter what, and I will restore you. Waste no time in reaching out to Me in every circumstance. This brings Me great, great joy, because your confidence in Me is great. Your Faith is great. And that brings Me Joy."
