

Ezekiel 9... Judgment of God... The Execution

(Jackie) This is the Rhema, I received on May 23, 2020. He inspired me to publish this in His Channel...

1 And He called out in my hearing with a loud voice, saying... "Let the punishers of the city draw near, each with his weapon of destruction in his hand."

2 And look, six men came from the direction of the upper gate, which faces north, each with his deadly weapon in his hand. And one man in their midst was clothed with linen and had a writer's ink-horn at his side. And they came in and stood beside the bronze altar.

3 Now the glory of the God of Israel went up from the cherub, where it had been, to the threshold of the house. And He called to the man clothed with linen who had the writer's ink-horn at his side
4 and the Lord said to him... "Go throughout the city of Jerusalem and put a mark on the foreheads of those who sigh and cry over all the abominations that are done in it."

5 And to the others He said in my hearing... "Follow him into the city and smite, do not let your eye pardon nor spare. 6 Slay to destruction the old men, the young men, the maidens and children and women, but do not touch anyone who has the mark, and begin at My sanctuary." So they began with the elders who were in front of the house. 7 Then He said to them... "Defile the house and fill the courts with the slain. Go out!" So they went out and began smiting throughout the city.

8 And as they were smiting them it came to be, that I alone was left. And I fell on my face, crying out and said... 'Oh, Lord and Master! Are you destroying all the remnant of Israel in pouring out Your wrath on Jerusalem?'

9 And He said to me... "The wickedness of the house of Israel and Judah is exceedingly great, and the land is full of bloodshed and the city is full of injustice. For they say... 'The Lord has forsaken the land, the Lord does not see.' 10 But as for Me, My eye shall not pardon, nor would I spare I shall recompense their deeds on their own head."

11 And see, the man clothed with linen, who had the ink-horn at his side, reported back and said... 'I have done as You commanded me.'
