

Wake up, before it's too late! This is My RED PILL for you

June 3, 2021 - Words from Jesus thru Sister Clare

(Clare) The sweet peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all, dear Heartdwellers. This morning I just wanted to hear from the Lord. I did not have anything on my mind, but I wanted to know what was on His mind, so I said... 'Lord, I am longing to hear Your voice and to know what is on Your heart.' And then He began...

(Jesus) "You know what the first thing on My heart is... Fish on. Meaning, catching a soul or souls who are at their end and have not yet received Me."

(Clare) He has been doing that a lot with us. When Ezekiel goes into intercession, a lot of times he will get the phrase 'fish on', which means there is a soul dying without the Lord, and we all pray the Divine Mercy Prayer to help with their salvation, because that is one of the promises of the Divine Mercy Prayer. The Lord continued...

(Jesus) "It is not a glorious job, being an intercessor. It is a very hidden calling. Yet the profound joy you feel when a soul is turned around... all of Heaven bursts forth in jubilation. You cannot underestimate the importance of this calling. Yet there are many ways to fish for souls. Your channel is a fish gate, each soul who embraces their cross I use to help deliver the message and soften the heart of one who has never known My love. That's why your song is so important."

(Clare) He had been reading my mind again. I never told him how feeble I felt over this song that I had been working on, like I was wasting my time, just having fun or something, even though for me, song writing is not an easy thing, it is daunting and challenging. And I am certainly out of practice.

(Jesus) "Beloved, what do you do when you really want to get closer to Me?"

(Clare) I pray over my song list and ask the Holy Spirit to speak to me through the songs on shuffle.

(Jesus) "And what does that do for you?"

(Clare) Oh Lord, it completely changes the atmosphere from the dregs of earth to the glory of Heaven, and soon I am in your affirming arms, reconnecting with my destiny, feeling peace and joy.

(Jesus) "And now you see... Even the most simple and modest song has the ability to do all that. What could possibly be worth more?"

(Clare) And I said... 'Receiving You at communion?'

(Jesus) "Yes, but your mind is locked up in the challenges of the day, or, more likely, you are mulling over the failures of the past few days... and that's because a demon sits on your shoulder and reminds you, unless your armor is on and your focus is on Me alone. The demons are 'guilt tripping' you, so you have no peace. No matter what you do, you feel guilty deep down.

"Clare, you can never live up to all the things you want to do for Me. But you can sift them out of your life, so only a few, the most important ones, are left. I want you to do this, Beloved. Everyone who loves Me and wants to make Me happy is guilt ridden for what they failed to do. Why? Because the devils hate peace, they hate the empowerment of My people. They hate creativity and will use voices of the past, especially parents who called musicians and artists seedy and the losers of society.

"And yet, the creativity with which I have endowed souls is one of their crowning glories, because it is through creative inspiration that I reach the world. Yes, My Word does not go forth void, but artists, writers, and musicians take My truth and express it in an unforgettable way.

"There are those who insist on drilling the Bible into the heads of others. To them, it is the only form of communication that matters. And of course, the bottom line is that that is true. But when a soul makes the word his own by living it, and his life illustrates the Scriptures by his decisions, a powerful witness is forthcoming. This, however, is a disturbing expression... 'If it isn't in the Bible, I don't believe it.'

"Children, children, is toothpaste in the Bible? Is harnessed electricity in the Bible? Are microphones and videos in the Bible? Are hot air balloons and computers in the Bible? Of course not... These are tools that have been developed by your culture, to make life better. A computer is neither evil nor good. It is simply a tool to be used to bring Me to the lost. The fact that man is filled with pride and vanity, and uses it the wrong way, has no bearing on whether it is good or evil.

"Everything mankind has and uses can be used for strictly holy purposes, it is man who uses it for evil, because evil is in his heart, along with demons egging him on.

"It is not a digression; it is an illustration. There are those who use all these things that are not in the Bible, but will turn around and attack others by saying: 'If it's not in the Bible, I don't believe it.' This is utter foolishness.

"Take 'The Chosen' series for instance. My words are portrayed in a most unique way. Some will pick at the surface details, but I applaud what they have done by illustrating My words in an unforgettable way. Many souls have been brought to conversion by this series. They had the wrong opinion of My character, yet this series corrects their errors, and they actually experience who I am and find that I am not like their parents, or like any other man for that matter.

"Satan hates creative people, especially if they fall in love with Me. He will use every voice from the past to discourage one such as this from using their gift. They are highly threatening to the kingdom of darkness, because they know how to communicate My love and truth.

"Now do you see? Both you and Ezekiel and every musician in the world will be opposed by the kingdom of darkness. They will hurl accusations at you, they will whisper condemnations in your ear, and they will blanket you with an uncomfortable feeling of 'Maybe I shouldn't be doing this.' while you are busy obeying Me and working on a song, or just letting go and exploring your instrument.

"It is all about a culture of hate. Their goal is to totally shut down your creative flow. On the other hand, they are busy encouraging the lost to put out music and films that portray hatred, violence, adultery, chaos, and hopelessness.

"I am telling you this My extraordinarily little Beloved, because you are both walking around with a fog of condemnation over your shoulder, which steals the deep peace and joy I have given you in your gift. It is because you love Me that you are constantly harassed, even without your knowledge that it is of a demonic nature. I do not condemn you; I applaud you for working on your keyboard last night. You were playing some beautiful things. But the enemy tried to steal it from you by causing strife and misunderstandings. I am telling you, Beloved, break through! Do not allow them to steal from you. Take Heaven by force, My Bride, Heaven lives in you, Clare, allow those living waters to flow out through your fingers.

"When ugliness raises its filthy head, IGNORE IT and keep going. Do not let the voices of condemnation stop you. Ezekiel suffers from this as well, he must learn to break through and keep his helmet and armor on. Yes, his parents, most definitely his father, were not real proud of him, being involved in music. Both of you are very gifted, both of you have much to give, even though you are not out there in the world, you can still contribute to My Kingdom by persevering in the gifts I have given you. Will you do this?"

(Clare) I am trying, Lord.

(Jesus) "And you are seeing some success, but there is much, much more to come... Much more, for both of you. Those who work for the dark side will now take this information and devise ways to block you. But guess what? I am waiting for them, and they will not succeed. You who delight in shutting down My prophets and artists, you have never known the love and encouragement I would have given you, had you turned to Me.

"Rather you are steeped in hatred, jealousy, resentment and bitterness, desiring with your darkened hearts to put an end to My people. But I am waiting for you. You will not succeed; in fact, life is about to become much more complicated for you, and you will not find the time to be cursing, so dire will be your circumstances.

"I have something better to give you... I have a heart that longs to call you My friends. Yes, I long to share all the gifts of Heaven with you. I long to make your life joyful and exciting, but first you must forgive those who were used to twist your thinking into evil ways. You must forgive them and let them go. Your hatred of them is poisoning you, and you are far from being happy in the hereafter. You are destined for the tormenting fires of Hell.

"This is NOT what I want for you. This is NOT what you were born for. And by the way, Satan is not My brother, he was created an arch angel, to lead the choirs of Heaven in worship, until his heart conceived jealousy and he sought to supplant Me. This he could not do, but he concocted lies and caused a third of My precious angels to fall with him and become reprobate.

"There is no hope for Satan or those who insist on believing his lies. You have been duped. He is but a creature, and as such he has no part in My divinity. He has lied to you, set you up, and is laughing you to scorn, for the day will come when your body dies, and you will be taken to Hell by force, and be tortured there."

"Think about it. What has Satan taught you to do... To lie, to destroy, to steal and to kill. 'You will know them by their fruits.' Now, if you study his fruits with your intelligence, you will see that there is no way he is going to or has the power to bless you with rewards. He is out for blood, and his entire purpose is to steal life from you, now and forever.

"Contrast that to Me, to how I bless, protect and empower My people. How I look after them and teach them, how I keep My promises to them, love them and rejoice with them. You cannot understand the difference between Heaven and Hell. You have been sold a phony bill of goods in return for a few gifts on earth, which will not go with you when you die. Rather they will be used for My Kingdom.

"Wake up! This is My red pill for you. Wake up and see that the one you have followed is a deceiver, and he hates you because you were made in My image. He is playing you to do his dirty work until that fateful moment when his demons will surround you and drag you down to hell. Listen to some of the near-death experiences and you will see what exists after death. Now I am reaching out My hand to you. I never meant for your life to be this dark, I want you in Heaven with Me, with all My heart.

"Those who have misrepresented Me or hurt you in the past, were acting out of ignorance and what was done to them as a child. I have no part in such things, but your Master, Satan, does. You see, he is the one who set you up and made you want to get even. He is the one behind the abuse, behind the hurt. Then he steps forward and offers you a way to acquire power and get even with those who hurt you. So now your life is tied up in vendettas and getting even.

"This is no way to live. Come to Me and I will heal you. I will not let them kill you; I will protect you and provide for you. Your life will be brighter than the afternoon sun, and not black as the pit. Come and taste the Love I have for you. It is like nothing you have ever experienced. If you think I am lying to you, read John Ramirez, he was one of Satan's generals. He knows that dark angel better than most. He had the power, the wealth, and everything he could ever want. So why did he leave Satan's service? Read about it and you will understand what has been hidden from you.

"I am inviting you to embrace truth, before it is too late. Your tomorrow is not guaranteed, but death is. What awaits you is torment and scorn. The more faithful you were to him, the more he laughs and devises new torments for you, mocking your faithfulness.

"If I did not love you, I would not take the time to give you this message. I would let you go your own way to Hell. But I do love you, I do care, I care very much, and that is why I have taken the time to tell you what has been hidden from you.

"Right now, America is getting her red pill, she is waking up to the corruption and lies this nation has been living in. She was on the brink of total chaos in the form of totalitarianism and communism, but she woke up just in time. And so are you; you have been fed lies and I am trying to wake you up. Truth will triumph, but I do not want it to send you to the abyss."
