1/4 - World War 3 and End of War by God's Intervention from the Cosmos

Even if in old and new revelations of God the term 'world war 3' is not mentioned, terms like 'fight of the nations against each other' and 'general world fire' and the context describe this happening. Above all many seers and visionaries describe a 3rd world war directly or indirectly. With Jakob Lorber there are more concrete references to the period of the 3rd world war and the intervention of God from the cosmos.

The prophecies of God by Bertha Dudde answer among other things the following questions regarding world war 3 and its end...

Will a sudden outbreak of war end the apparent peace?

A superficial-apparent peace will end with the death of a ruler. After that, turmoil and unrest will spread and the powers will rage against each other. Hatred will rage without restraint. Heavy fighting will take place everywhere in the world. The whole world will become a flashpoint.

What motives will precipitate World War 3?

Ultimately, the age-old motives will also be valid for this world war... Lust for earthly, material goods, world-wide, geostrategic power, supremacy or even world domination, robbery of the mineral resources, riches, oil, gold of other countries out of egoism and avarice, as well as religious fanaticism and bossiness.

Which inner, spiritual causes trigger a last World War?

On a deeper, spiritual level it is a fight between Satan and God = Jesus Christ, whereby humans are the earthly representatives and executors of the fight. Satan wants to harm respectively destroy as many people and as much of nature as possible through this 3rd world war in order to prevent their spiritual maturation and spiritual return to God.

Why will God allow World War 3?

In spite of apparent peace, the (preparatory) conflict of the world powers will continue in a hidden way. Since the divine warnings are ignored, God will allow the open outbreak of war, because people and spirits have freedom of will and action and they have not used the time of peace well. Therefore, God will not intervene until a certain level is exceeded.

Will material precautions or flight ensure a survival?

Hectic material precautions and flight to seemingly safe places will be of no use. People should rather trustingly place their fate in God's = Jesus' hands and ask Him for protection and salvation.

Once the fight of the powers triggers the global world fire (= world war 3), everything will take its course until the 3rd world war will be stopped by God's intervention from the cosmos.

Will an intervention of God from the cosmos stop World War 3?

By themselves, the opposing coalition armies (Islam, Russia, China, USA/Nato) would not end the 'world fire' of world war 3. God = Jesus Christ will therefore intervene at the height of the atrocities. He will end the terrible slaughter by a glistening bright and hot celestial body coming extremely fast from the cosmos. This body will give the earth one or more violent blows and bring extreme heat and poisonous gases and dark dust clouds with it and wrap the earth in darkness for 3 days. All the forces of nature will be thrown into turmoil by impacts, the most violent earthquakes, volcanic eruptions, storms, fire waves and floods, causing huge destruction.

This worldwide impacting catastrophe from the cosmos will cost countless human lives. No side will be able to continue the war. And there will also be no winner of the 3rd world war, but only losers. All countries will be affected to varying degrees and will face varying degrees of misery and hardship. The chaos and destruction caused by war and natural disasters will initially force the survivors to adopt a radically different, primitive way of life.

Which countries will be severely affected?

Those countries whose rulers started the fire, will be most affected by the natural disaster. The natural disaster will be felt in all the countries that were united by the world fire (World War 3) and are bent on mutual destruction. God will prove His omnipotence over the cosmos, nature and everything created – by this event brought about and purposefully steered by Him. In it will the justice of God be shown. As the world situation – especially in the proxy war in Syria – is currently developing, the war drivers include Turkey and its neighboring Muslim countries and Russia on the one hand, but also Israel, the US and NATO on the other. Both blocs have been setting the course towards a 3rd world war for years.

Global Natural Disaster from the Cosmos

How can you recognize the approaching end times?

By cosmic signs and by the restless behavior of man and animals it becomes recognizable that a global natural disaster brought from the cosmos is near. Also the following end of the earth and mankind by burning of the earth's surface is announced by prophetic predictions and on the basis of inner feelings. The time until then is to be used eagerly to inform and educate the people.

Shall predictions regarding the disaster from the cosmos be spread?

God warns the people since primeval times, before large disasters occur, so that they can still change their wrong behavior and prepare themselves. Therefore, those who know about such prophecies should also spread them. Even if only very few people want to hear or read it, they – out of brotherly love – are to be informed about what is coming. They are to be told, what can bring them protection and help during and after the God's intervention from the cosmos.

What changes in the cosmos announce the danger for the earth?

There will be changes in the constellations of the stars in the cosmos, which will become noticeable on earth periodically by earth tremors.

Which conspicuousnesses will an approaching star show?

A star rushing towards the Earth will always show new peculiarities in its orbit, visibility and luminosity. Orbit calculations will show it as a serious danger for the earth. Its arrival and the resulting worldwide natural disasters will bring about a physical and spiritual turning point for the earth and mankind.

Has a disaster from the cosmos been predicted for a long time as a sign of the near end of humanity?

An 'enemy from the skies', who will bring about a worldwide natural disaster on earth, has already been predicted biblically and by prophet Jakob Lorber and many seers and visionaries.

How will be the year before the catastrophe from the cosmos?

The year before will already show problems of all kinds (civil wars, turmoil, terrorist attacks, Islamic Jihad, war preparations for world war 3). They should shake people up and lead them back to God and His order. But carelessness will prevail until the signs of the approaching disaster becomes visible for everyone, but too late for (useless) precaution. Although astronomers and the 'elite' will recognize the danger of an extremely close pass by the earth or even a ramming collision of the celestial body with the earth early, but obviously the population will not be warned – as usual – 'to avoid panic'. So the disaster will come unexpectedly and catch most people unprepared.

Will people be able to repel or redirect this intruder?

This hot, bright 'star' rushing directly towards the earth cannot be deflected or destroyed with earthly means or weapons/inventions, because this event will be brought about by God Himself purposefully – both, as help to end world war 3 and as damage-bringing punishment for godlessness and the degeneration of mankind.

Will external protective measures be useful and effective?

Since this intervention from the cosmos will be brought about by God Himself, earthly precautionary and protective measures will be useless or effective only, if they are in the Divine Will and Plan in individual cases. Instead, turning to Jesus = God and asking for His protection and firmly trusting in His love, power and mercy will be important and useful.

Will there be safe places of escape?

Attempts to escape somewhere will be useless. A judgment sent by God will reach every person it is supposed to affect, everywhere. Only what God wants to preserve will be spared. A close connection to Jesus and requests for help, protection and assistance and firm trust in God will be important for survival.

How should believers adapt themselves for the announced material losses in advance?

Because almost all people strive mainly for material goods and sensual pleasures and disregard their character and spiritual development, the worldwide natural disaster with the associated massive material destruction is to show people how transient the material goods and sensual pleasures are. Therefore, whoever frees himself early on from the striving for material and sensual things and practices to renounce them voluntarily, and frequently turns inwardly to Jesus = God, lives according to His order and asks Him for help and salvation. These are the ones preparing themselves best and safest. Then the announced time of trouble will be easier and better to cope with.

Which last signs will warn of the imminent arrival of the celestial body?

People and animals will be seized by an unusual restlessness and excitement shortly before the beginning of the natural disaster from the cosmos. Animals will flee and turn back suddenly as if remote-controlled. Only for (clairvoyant) believers, light appearances (by angels) will become visible at the firmament. Hints of believers pointing to that, will be laughed at by unbelievers as phantasties.

What protection does Jesus promise the believers for the course of the natural disaster?

Whoever believes the predictions and words of God and firmly trusts in Jesus' help, adjusts to what is coming and its positive meaning for the maturation of the soul, asks Jesus already before or at least during these natural disasters for protection, help and saving assistance, will have good chances of survival and can remain calm, because for such believers the catastrophic events will occur in a mitigated way.

How should believers behave directly before and during the occurrence of the natural disaster from the cosmos?

The fellow human beings in the immediate vicinity should be pointed to the deeper reason and purpose of what is coming. They should be made aware of the Divine Omnipotence, Love and Mercy as well as help of Jesus = God and firmly trust in Him. They are to get intimately in touch with Jesus, to join Him in order to receive from Him strength in increased measure for the hours of highest need. They should address earnest, trusting and intimate requests for strength, help, protection and salvation to Jesus. Then they will remain calm, will not be impressed by what is happening, will not need to fear and worry. Everything serves above all the spiritual development and should lead to the return to God and His order.

How will unbelievers react when disaster strikes?

As soon as the approaching star indicates an inevitable disaster, this will lead to fear of death, reckless egoism, inability to think and panic among the unprepared and unbelievers worldwide. This will happen especially among those who did not believe the disaster predictions and have no trust in Divine power and help and therefore do not ask Jesus for help.

How will the disaster from the cosmos proceed?

From many individual parts from various prophecies and showings the following probable scenario can be derived, which effects the intervention of God from the cosmos will take... The extremely near to earth (between moon and earth) passing glowing hot celestial body will bring with it a dark, poisonous cloud surrounding it with enormous pressure waves and many debris parts of different sizes. Whereever they arrive, it will suddenly become pitch black and at the same time unbearably hot. The pressure waves before and during the flyby will cause tremendous whirlwinds, tornadoes and hurricanes with roaring and raging.

Tornadoes and the maelstrom after its flyby will snatch and pull up everything that is not absolutely firmly anchored in the ground and spread it widely as pelting debris. Countless glowing stones of various sizes will rain down as a shower of sparks from the atmosphere of this celestial body and start countless fires. Many tremendous explosions will take place. Some large, separate companions of the celestial body will strike the mainland and the sea as glowing impacts. They will not only produce more tsunamis, but also lead to the evaporation of huge masses of water and resulting in torrential rain. The earth will begin to tumble and lurch, the earth's axis will shift as the earth's rotation is briefly stopped by the passing celestial body.

In connection with these events, there will also be earth plate displacements, earth cracks, most violent magma and volcanic eruptions on the mainland and undersea and extremely high tsunamis. Moreover, huge masses of water will pour out of the earth's interior onto the earth's surface and cause massive floods. In short, all elements unleashed from the cosmos by this event will – by their interaction – contribute to global disasters never experienced before. Landscapes will be reshaped in such a way that in many cases they will be unrecognizable.

Altogether the approaching, the passing and the circling of the earth by the celestial body will produce 3 days of darkness. As soon as the celestial body will have moved away again with its dark, poisonous atmosphere, dragging along with its suction the poisonous gases and many debris, the atmosphere will clear again, the sun can shine again – but the conditions on earth will have changed so thoroughly as it has never been experienced in the history of mankind.

Not all countries will be equally affected, but where this celestial body comes closest to Earth on its orbit, the worst effects will occur and few people will be able to survive. All in all, however, the worldwide consequences will exceed everything in misery and distress that mankind has ever experienced.

Will this intervention by God from the cosmos end World War 3 at its peak?

The disaster from the cosmos will arrive when the climax of all evils will be reached in the 3rd World War. This intervention of God from the cosmos will also destroy the Russian-Muslim coalition armies gathered for the final battle for Israel in the Valley of Jehoshaphat. As God's intervention to save the earth and mankind, the catastrophe from the cosmos will make a continuation of World War 3 impossible. Thus, this world war will end only because all warring parties will be incapacitated and weakened by God's intervention and therefore no coalition will be victorious.

What extent of damage will the disaster from the cosmos have?

Already world war 3 will cause unimaginably great damage to human lives, animals, plants, buildings, infrastructure and the earth as an organism. The natural disaster from the cosmos will cause still far larger damage, so that the total extent will exceed everything. Countries and seas will change, rivers will step out of the banks and in such a way pictures will be created that humans will believe themselves to be transferred into other areas. There will therefore be hardship and misery never before experienced by man.

Will the whole earth be equally affected?

It is true that the countries lying directly under the passage of the passing celestial body and those which will be affected by land and sea impact will be the most devastated. There will be impacts beyond all imagination. But also such countries which are not directly affected by it and by world war 3, but participated in its coming into being, will be affected. This unleashing of all elements, brought about from the cosmos, will by no means happen by chance. It will be the last big warning of God before the end of mankind which will take place 7 years later and which mankind will prepare for itself by deep experiments.

Can the death through this disaster bring benefits for soul and spirit?

Those who lose their earthly life through this disaster, have the chance to develop in the beyond. Whoever survives, must make a decision of faith for or against Jesus and will be banished in matter at the final fiery judgment in case of complete unbelief and wickedness. However, those who die beforehand will escape this re-banishment fate.

Will this great disaster be the last sign of the near end of this epoch of mankind?

Mankind will fear a repetition of such an event after the natural disaster from the cosmos and with it the end of the earth and mankind. This feared event of the end of mankind will occur according to different prophecies seven years later. It will be caused by people through irresponsible experiments in the depths of the earth.

The disaster from the cosmos will be the last big warning of God before the total burning of the earth's surface and mankind. This intervention of God from the cosmos is to direct the thoughts back to God and to the life after death and to move mankind towards conversion.

For what time is the disaster from the cosmos, the return of Jesus and the end of mankind predicted?

Out of the chaos and destructions from world war 3 and the natural disaster from the cosmos the 'New World Order' (NWO) will be established and led by the Antichrist who now steps into the public. It will last altogether 7 years – according to different biblical and newer prophecies. The last three and a half years of this will involve a brutal worldwide faith war against Jesus and all Christians.

Before the imminent worldwide final annihilation of all Christians, Jesus will come again, rapturing those Christians in the body who have remained faithful to Him. On the very same day, chain reactions of explosions to world-wide magma eruptions, earth fissures, volcanic eruptions, floods from underground and above-ground water sources, hurricanes and air envelope burnings will occur due to scientifically and economically motivated deep experiments. They will destroy the entire surface of the earth to great depths with fire. All non-raptured people will perish by this fire inferno and will be devoured in the opened maw of the earth.

Jesus was born on January 6, -06 B.C. and lived until May 28, 28 A.D. He predicted several times during his 3 years of teaching in the years 25 to 28 A.D. (revealed through Jakob Lorber) that the end of this earth period and humanity would take place after not quite two thousand years (thus according to this lifetime dating at the latest 2028 A.D.). If the last 7 years of mankind and habitable earth surface are reached at the latest 2028, thus approx. 2020/21 would be the time where world war 3 and its end by the catastrophe from the cosmos can be expected.

Even if the period for the actual beginning of the end time – i.e. the judgment of God from the cosmos – can be calculated by these prophecies of Jesus to 2020/21, the exact date, i.e. year, month or day will remain open. The event will nevertheless come as a surprise for almost all people.

Effects of the global natural disaster from the cosmos

In what situation will the survivors find themselves in the disaster area?

Where world war 3 and the disaster from the cosmos will have a direct effect, whole areas will be devastated and partly unrecognizable because of great external changes. There will be unimaginably great destructions. Everywhere will be chaos, which will be eliminated only little by little and with a lot of effort. In the directly affected area, the few survivors will find themselves in unprecedented material hardship, because the basis of life, the entire infrastructure and electronic means of communication will be almost completely destroyed.

Because of destroyed means of communication, there will be uncertainty about the fate of relatives. The outside world will not know. Survivors will be completely isolated and on their own for a long time. They will not be able to survive without mutual aid. Even with the greatest, most laborious efforts, only the most primitive, simplest way of life will be possible. Only with the greatest effort will it be possible to rebuild without aid. For selfish unbelievers, life and reconstruction will be significantly more difficult and obstacle-ridden than for helpful believers.

How will people react after the catastrophe?

Most people will react to the indescribable chaos and destruction in the directly affected area with horror, inability to think and act, confusion, powerlessness and helplessness. Fear of a repetition of such an event from the cosmos will be widespread.

Why will help from outside be impossible for a longer time?

Because the whole communication structure will be destroyed, the actual extent of destruction will not be manageable at first, neither for the survivors nor for other countries. Therefore, only self-help will be possible with those small means that may still be available. Because of the innumerable dead, few survivors and small remaining material means everyone will have to help themselves for a long time on the most primitive level. Those who faithfully ask Jesus for help, strength and support, and thus also want to help others, will also receive the means to do so through supernatural help.

What will the medical situation be like in the disaster areas?

Diseases and epidemics of all kinds will be further catastrophic consequences resulting from the combination of World War 3 and the disaster from the cosmos. Because of contagiousness by a 'devastating disease' and 'epidemics of all kinds' the affected lands will be avoided and isolated. Many survivors would rather be dead, but will not be able to die.

Who will receive Divine Help in the extreme time of need afterwards?

Whoever seriously and trustingly turns to Jesus in this time of need and asks Him for strength and help will receive help, no matter the concern for soul and body. Faithful people will also understand the positive soul and spiritual purpose of this event and will thus be able to better cope with their situation also psychologically and help others in an informative way.

What will turning to Jesus, asking and following His teachings accomplish?

The will to call upon God and to observe the Divine Commandments and Admonitions, as well as prayer will lead to Jesus' help and power supply.

What should Jesus be asked for? Is close connection to Him important?

Help, strength and perseverance should be asked from Jesus unselfishly and trustingly. A constant close inner connection with Jesus is important.

Does Jesus' help correspond to the strength of faith and trust in Him?

Deep faith and full and strong trust in Jesus' help and omnipotence will be heard. Jesus' help will correspond to the extent of faith and firm trust.

Why will charity be important in overcoming hardship?

Charity, solidarity, cohesion and cooperation will be extremely important in this emergency and chaos. Jesus therefore promises supernatural help to all those afflicted, who want to help others afflicted in His name and earnestly ask Him for strength, help and support, especially when they themselves are in no better situation. Brotherly love, strong faith, trust in God, patience, willingness to help and sacrifice for others will therefore be rewarded from above by wonderful help.

Will selfishness, pressure, exploitation and forced labor prevail again?

Even after this catastrophe, only a few survivors will be unselfishly helpful. Instead, many will ignore the general misery and think only of themselves and their physical well-being and comfort, and act accordingly in a selfishly ruthless manner. Stronger ones will assert themselves brutally and ruthlessly, taking possession of other people's property, and harass, exploit or destroy the weak ones.

Will the right consequences be drawn from the Divine Intervention?

Only a few people will draw the right consequences from what has happened. Most people will react without insight, as they almost always do, by ignoring, minimizing, rationalizing a deeper meaning behind the events or denying a guiding intervention by God's omnipotence with explanations of a rational kind. They will even rebel and fight against God because they cannot recognize any love of God in this event.

What effect will the great disaster have on the powerful and unbelievers?
Especially the rulers and the rich will acknowledge least of all that this natural disaster was an intervention by God. Instead, they will find the most diverse pseudo-rational explanations for it. They will continue their previous striving for power, greatness, material possessions and prosperity at the expense of weaker people.

2/4 - The Antichrist & his 'New World Order' during the Endtimes

Is the Antichrist a person or an antichristian principle?

On one hand, the term 'Antichrist' describes Satan's efforts against God = Jesus Christ, His teachings and against Christians in general ever since the death of Jesus. On the other hand, it also describes a ruler during the endtimes, who is possessed by Satan to such a large degree, that he acts in complete accordance with his will, exercising his power to further Satan's goals. In a sense, all individuals who follow Satan and act according to his will are antichrists.

When will the Antichrist appear in person?

The end-time Antichrist will appear immediately after the catastrophe from the cosmos. He will gain global influence and power through his promise to provide help, salvation and order during that time of greatest need and chaos. This corresponds to the goal of the strategists of the New World Order... 'From chaos to order'

Even before the end-time catastrophe from the cosmos, Islam, with its false 'god' Allah, proves to be a manifestation of Satan through its rampage against God, Jesus Jehovah, Lord of hosts, and against all Christians. This large-scale persecution by Satan through Islam will be continued in an even worse manner by the end-time Antichrist, shortly after the catastrophe from the cosmos, and all surviving believers will be targeted.

What characteristics and behaviors will the Antichrist exhibit?

An appealing appearance, pomp, great willpower and eloquence, sophisticated dissimulation, occult gifts and promises of material well-being belie the true hard-hearted, relentless and ruthless nature of the Antichrist, enabling him to gain worldwide power (New World Order).

How will the Antichrist hide his true nature?

The Antichrist will be a master of dissimulation, lies, misdirection, deception and profiteering. Occult gifts will support him. He will appear under the guise of someone who can return order, someone pious, empathetic, a veritable bringer of salvation, a helper and savior. However, thanks to his lovelessness, arrogance, lust for power, lies, greed for profit and occult abilities, he will be easy to see through.

By what means will the Antichrist gather his followers?

Chaos and distress due to the catastrophe from the cosmos, promises of the Antichrist for restoration of order and a quick recovery of earthly goods and prosperity; all of these are ideal conditions for the Antichrist to gain followers worldwide, thereby establishing his 'New World Order' after the natural catastrophe. The spiritual blindness of the population and his occult abilities will help him in this endeavour.

How can Satan's actions within the Antichrist be recognized?

With the person of the Antichrist, Satan will possess a pawn occupying an adversarial position against God/Jesus. With this, Satan will be able to work thoroughly against God = Jesus Christ, His teachings, Christians, and all faith and righteousness. The spiritually blind followers of the Antichrist will not see through Satan's actions within him. In this respect, they will support Satan and, therefore, also be possessed by him and his demons. Only convinced and true Christians will recognize his possession by Satan.

How will the people of the world view and judge this person?

The followers of the Antichrist will obey him blindly. They will even see the Messiah in him, who will bring help and salvation. They will cheer, worship and idolize him. In this respect, his followers will unmistakably practice idolatry.

What strategy will he use against believers?

Under the guise of the pious one and the bringer of salvation, the Antichrist will first expand his world domination for about 3 years with a lot of cunning and violence. In this endeavour, gullible and naive Christians will support him as well. Afterwards, he will implement his actual plans inconspicuously. Since he will only act against individual denominations in the beginning, he will win over other denominations in the process, who see this as an opportunity to weaken and dispose of their denominational opponents. But in the end, the Antichrist and his helpers wish to fight and destroy all denominations, every belief in a God, and most vehemently and consistently, all Christians.

What goals will the Antichrist strive for?

The Antichrist will pursue all the goals that Satan has pursued ever since his rebellion against God=Jesus, His order and followers. He will deny a God of love. He will present Jesus Christ as a non-existent fantasy figure, His work of redemption as unbelievable, and he will fight Jesus and the Christian teachings, labelling them a spiritual enemy.

He will put himself in God's place and let himself be worshipped. With cunning, threats of violence and force he will attempt to remove every belief in a God from the people. He will reject everything supernatural and not certifiable as non-existent. He will easily topple the more often merely nominal Christian belief in Jesus and His teachings throughout Christian denominations with rational arguments and by sowing doubts, thereby devaluing brotherly love as a weakness. He will cause discord, strife, turmoil and hatred among the people, stifling any leftover love.

How will the Antichrist deal with Christians?

The Antichrist will hatefully and brutally persecute Christians, dispossess them and put them in material and spiritual distress. He will take away their shelters and deprive them of every means of livelihood. Finally, he will want to kill them all. Only his followers will have the right to live, Christians will not. On the other hand, his accomplices, in the fight against Christians and apostates, will be royally rewarded. These typically satanic practices and goals against Christians are also implemented by Muslims, whose 'God Allah' thereby exposes himself as Satan under this cover name... These goals of autocracy and power over everything, as well as the behavior of the Antichrist will resemble, or even surpass, the goals and practices that the thoroughly anti-Christian Islam has been pursuing and practicing for 1400 years. For instance: Coercion to renounce faith in Jesus, most brutal persecution, disenfranchisement, dispossession and even death.

Will the Antichrist generally persecute every spiritual aspiration and action?

First and foremost, he will suppress every kind of faith and spiritually minded thought and aspiration, in order to completely secularize people.

What is the actual time of tribulation and distress?

The actual time of tribulation and distress mentioned several times in the Bible will last about seven years, ending with the *Rapture of the faithful, during the Coming of Jesus and the subsequent destruction of the persecutors. It is characterized by extreme distress of Christians due to the myriad of brutal and hellish practices used against them to turn them away from faith in God = Jesus Christ.

(Jackie) *Rapture – A quick sidenote here... As Jesus has promised thru Timothy (Trumpet Call of God) and thru Sister Clare (Heartdwellers), there will be a Rapture of the first harvest right before this cosmic event occurs.

How should Christians work against the goals of the Antichrist?

With all the strength they can muster, Christians must resist these satanic strategies and goals, work against them and not give into them. They must fight with fervor, but with weapons of love.

What help will Christians receive from Jesus?

Even if the situation for Christians may seem hopeless on the outside, they will supernaturally receive strength, comfort, hope, support, argumentation and survival help from Jesus, and in many ways, even in a material way.

Will the Antichrist defeat the Christians?

Satan, through the Antichrist, will succeed in turning many Christians away from faith, but he will not defeat or destroy the faithful and steadfast core group of true Christians, thanks to the guidance and protection of Jesus and His angels. Believers know that the Antichrist will perish, and that Satan will be bound again through the imminent, final judgment, brought about by the followers of the Antichrist.

Why does God allow the Antichrist to rise in the first place?

Many Christians consider themselves to be orthodox. Through this test of faith, they will have to prove how genuine, well-founded and strong their faith really is. Satan, the Antichrist and his followers will be allowed to unfold, thereby filling their cup of evil to the brim before God = Jesus and his believers. Through irresponsible experiments in the deep they will scorch the earth's surface with magma eruptions and cause earth fissures, preparing their own judgment and death in the process.

By what means will the Antichrist and his New World Order perish?

Before the Antichrist can destroy all faithful Christians, he and his followers will bring about their own end. Through experiments deep within the earth, atomic chain reactions will split the earth, magma will spill onto the surface and the atmosphere will ignite. In a global sea of fire the entire surface of the earth will be destroyed, all the way down to great depths. The followers of the Antichrist will be banished into matter for a long time.

Battle of Faith by the Antichrist and NWO followers

Why will religious tolerance suddenly change after the catastrophe from the cosmos?

After the catastrophe from the cosmos wreaks havoc worldwide, God will be accused of having allowed such a thing to happen. Based on this, an increasingly worsening battle of faith will take place against all Christians.

What is the reason and purpose of allowing the disputes between different ideologies?

Only through voluntary or forced arguments between different denominations, of which each one thinks to be the only true one, can a personal and firm viewpoint grow. Therefore, during this last battle of faith, before the end of mankind, such disputes will be allowed to occur. They will force a decision for or against Jesus and His teachings to be made.

Who will remain steadfast and faithful to Jesus, and who will not?

With the current spiritual low of many church members, even many nominal Christians will altogether part ways with faith, because they lack a genuine and secure foundation of faith, as well as a firm conviction of the truth as Jesus has taught it.

How important is trust in Jesus' guidance and an intimate connection to Him?

The disciples of Jesus must confidently let themselves be guided by Jesus, regard everything as His guidance, always long for His closeness and join Him more and more in an intimate manner. Then they need not to be afraid.

When will the battle of faith fully flare up?

Approximately 3 years after the disaster from the cosmos, the actual tribulation and persecution period by the Antichrist and his followers against the Christians will commence. Missionary work will be forbidden and action will be taken, with great severity, against everything that is considered to be a work for Jesus and His kingdom.

What should Christians watch out for during the battle of faith?

Christians must pay attention to the messengers of Jesus, follow their true teachings and join them, so that a small, mutually strengthening community can come into being. People who give into the pressure and desires of the Antichrist and his followers for worldly and material reasons, must be made aware of the worthlessness of earthly goods and the imminent demise of the Antichrist and his followers.

How can the ministering process continue during the prohibition of speech and ministry? Christians must stay far away from Satan's followers and avoid arguments during the persecution period. They must consolidate their faith, work in silence and serve Jesus through words and deeds. After the prohibition of preaching and the initiation of persecutions have been issued, Jesus' servants are to withdraw wisely, so as not to endanger or destroy what they have achieved up to that point. Nevertheless, in total commitment, Jesus' teachings, will and name must continue to be boldly, gently, wisely and carefully made known to the peoples of the world. Christians are not to shun the world and its rulers, but to openly stand up for their actions.

How should Christians react when a clear decision for or against Jesus is demanded of them? During the climax of the great battle of faith, an uncompromising decision for or against Jesus will be demanded of all Christians. With a clear decision, on the inside and outside, for Jesus and an open confession of faith in Him, even more people are to be won for His kingdom.

Why should Christians not bow down to laws that are inimical to God?

If worldly ordinances and laws harm any fellow human beings and contradict the divine laws, one must disobey them, if one is able to fight back.

How will the Antichrist treat Christians?

Satan works against Christians and believers, both under the guise of 'Allah' through Muslims, and through the Antichrist and his earthly followers under the 'New World Order'. The fate of Christians will be difficult and sorrowful, while Satan's followers will be well off on the outside. Every belief in a God, as well as spiritual things in general, are planned to be destroyed. Especially the church organizations and what is outwardly recognizable as Christian will be persecuted.

The Christian churches will be forbidden the outward practice of worship. Those who valued outward and ceremonial things will have to change their ways. Messengers of God and believers will be ridiculed, mocked, and slandered. Everything that is good and true will be suppressed, and everything bad and false will dominate; good will suffer hardship in many ways. Regulations and laws will be enacted specifically against Christians. They will be deprived of rights, the law of the strongest will prevail. Christians will be deprived of everything material they require, all in an effort to destroy them.

Christians will be forced into services that exceed their powers and abilities. Christians will no longer have peace, they will be constantly harassed, persecuted, harmed, and dispossessed for no reason. They will always find themselves in battle situations. Satan will influence the Antichrist and his followers in such a way that they will no longer have any inhibitions or mercy towards Christians, and they will be justified in using any means to cause Christians to turn away from faith. The thoughts and wills of Christians will be confused and manipulated (mind control) to prevent contact with Jesus.

Every trick, lie and weapon in the enemy's arsenal will be ruthlessly utilized against all Christians. Through pious dissimulation of the Antichrist, many Christians will be deceived. Christians will be exposed to difficult temptations, tricking them into taking the easier way. Christians will be prevented from correctly discerning, from carrying out their plans and from practicing works of love. Christians will be increasingly isolated, shunned, scorned and ridiculed by their fellow human beings, who have become ever more fiendish. They will put Christians in material need to return their minds back to matter. They will be deprived of all nourishment. Only the followers of the antichrist will be granted the right to live, and Christians are to die.

Will spiritual communities form during this great battle of faith?

Jesus will pave the way and bring His followers together Himself. Like-minded people will find each other in Jesus' name; love will bring them together. They will form a spiritual community, keep His commandments, lift each other up, comfort each other, share strength among themselves, stick together, work in His name and acknowledge Jesus before the world.

What commonalities will unite the various Christian spiritual groups?

The various persecuted Christian communities will focus on Jesus' teaching and acknowledgment of His name as a basic principle, and thereby unite. Every denominational dispute will be buried. External ceremonial acts and customs will be rejected, and only the inner bond with Jesus Christ will be striven for. Every Christian denomination will give priority to cultivating, teaching and practicing love. It will include all who stand for love and faith, who will acknowledge Jesus before the world and be filled with His spirit, as a result of unceasing deeds of love.

Why does God allow these persecutions by Satan/Antichrist?

During the battle of faith, a clear confession for or against God = Jesus will be demanded by the Antichrist. This will decide the continued fate of the soul after its death. This decision will require a conscious confrontation with the previous traditional faith. Because of the freedom of will of Satan, of the Antichrist, but also of all Christians, everyone must, by themselves, make the decision of belonging to Satan or God = Jesus. As long as the divine teaching, which testifies of God and His omnipotence, His love and wisdom, is not attacked, He will not intervene, but He will if this teaching is suppressed.

When does Satan exceed his authority? How does God set limits then?

Thanks to his freedom of will, Satan, together with his helpers, can fully unfold once again, but as soon as he exceeds that limit, when he will deprive people of the freedom of will and their faith in God, that is when he seals his fate.

Why will the opponents of Christ not achieve their goal?

Where there is genuine faith in the divinity of Jesus and His work of redemption, the opponents will not achieve their goals. The power of faith will be demonstrated by obvious signs and miracles which God Himself will manifest for and through the believers. As such, their faith will endure the most severe tests; they will no longer disclose what they possess in faith. They will receive strength, assistance, counsel and protection from Jesus.

How long will this test of faith last?

The test of faith by the Antichrist will last a full 3 years until the final judgment. In total, the reign of the Antichrist and the 'New World Order' will last 7 years, according to various prophecies. The reign of the Antichrist will begin at the end of the 3rd world war and the catastrophe from the cosmos, which will put an end to the war. Ultimately, this test of faith will be put to an end by the Coming of Jesus, after the Rapture of the last believers, and by the complete destruction of the surface of the earth, as well as of all the followers of Satan still living upon it, in a global inferno.

3/4 - Jesus' Endtime Servants & His Forerunner... Their Preparation & Tasks

Prophets and seers will continually point to the intervention of God from the cosmos, to the close doom of the earth, and to the renewed banishment of souls that act contrary to God. They will do so even if they are not believed. They will emphasize the urgency of a change in attitude and lifestyle, they will talk about love and mercy, but also about the justice of God. A sense of responsibility must be awakened in those souls, and they must be awakened from their spiritual sleep. Those who accept the admonitions and warnings, and have the will to do good, shall be saved from perdition.

Who can work for Jesus and His kingdom?

Anyone who is willing can help to inform people about Jesus, His kingdom and the final judgment of this earth. All those, who are in the truth, believe in Him as God, pray to Him, connect with Him, fulfill His will and want to be active for Him and His kingdom are counted as followers of Jesus. During the endtimes, Jesus can only use helpers who are ready to serve and eager to do their work out of love for Him.

Do former disciples of Jesus also serve as His endtime servants?

During the endtimes, many former disciples of Jesus will also be incarnated on earth to work for Him once again, showing people the way to Him before the end. Usually they are not aware about their previous activity with Jesus. On top of that, reincarnated disciples of Jesus have to complete their spiritual education as well, just like all other people. They must become aware of their human weaknesses, fight for firm faith, and actively acquire love, knowledge and wisdom. They must receive living knowledge about Jesus and His work of redemption. The close bond with Jesus facilitates their development. The reincarnated former disciples of Jesus will be able to receive the truth from above and understand it.

How should Jesus' endtime disciples prepare themselves for their tasks?

They must detach themselves from material goods and activities, and give preference to spiritual matters. They must free themselves early on from attachments to material and worldly things that have become dear to them. They must surrender all earthly thoughts and worries to Jesus. They must steel themselves for spiritual tasks, preferring them to earthly ones. They must practice brotherly love, build up and strengthen their faith and trust. They must give priority to their own spiritual development and maturation. They must educate their fellow men about the seriousness of the times. They must be active in love, and calling for brotherly love, for it supplies strength. They must become strong and active in faith.

The survivors must be made aware of the importance and blessing of active brotherly love, for their own souls, and to alleviate the misery of others. They must learn to trust in Jesus' continual willingness to help, as well as His omnipotence's ability to help in every need. Faith in Jesus is to be awakened or strengthened, knowledge must be increased, and Jesus' teachings must be diligently studied. They shall study the words of Jesus, for they are spiritual nourishment, and give strength and power for what is to come, and against enemies during the battle of faith. Build firm faith and trust in Jesus' love, goodness and might. Through appropriate guidance and trials, they are being prepared for strong faith and for sensing Jesus' constant presence. Faith in Jesus' teachings and confidence in His love and power must be reinforced. The power of faith is to become so great that one can release everything to Jesus without hesitation, surrendering oneself to Him completely and submitting to His will. Spiritual preparation includes, among other things, daily retreat into silence, consciously opening oneself to Jesus and His guidance, gaining experience with prayer, and surrendering one's life and will to Jesus. They must surrender themselves completely to Jesus and consistently work in His will, according to His inner directives, but without overzealousness.

They must learn to see the cause, meaning and purpose of the coming events from God's perspective, considering them acts of God's love and wisdom. They must be constantly aware of Jesus' love, omnipotence and help in difficult times, thereby being full of strength and confidence in victory. They must be prepared for difficult struggles of faith. They must be aware of Jesus' presence and help. They must establish a continual, living, and close relationship with Jesus, constantly drawing strength from Him and acquiring firm conviction that He is always by their side, fighting with them and for them. This will make them courageous, powerful and resistant.

Why are Jesus' endtime servants being trained outside the church institutions?

The spiritual training to become a suitable tool for Jesus often takes place outside of Christian organizations. As such, they will more likely be able to work when primarily church organizations are persecuted during the battle of faith. Because of their true knowledge, they will be able to strengthen, reawaken and enlighten the faith of church Christians who begin to doubt and waver as they start to consider the questionable or even false teachings of their organization.

How do they receive their orders and arguments?

In each individual case, an urge of the heart will reveal with whom and what must be spoken. The words are placed into the mouths of Jesus' disciples and need only be spoken.

What tasks are to be completed before the catastrophe from the cosmos?

The time before the catastrophe from the cosmos is to be used eagerly for oneself and others, pointing it out and preparing for it. The followers of Jesus must develop themselves according to God's will, pray ever more intensively and let go of the material things their hearts are still attached to.

The end of this earth and mankind, as well as a possible renewed banishment must be pointed out. The time of freedom to proclaim the Gospel and to work for Jesus is to be used before the time of prohibition of speech arrives and all missionary activity is forbidden. Every opportunity must be used to bring Jesus' teachings to the people and to work through the power of His name. The mostly feeble faith of the people is to be strengthened in order to stand firm during the time of persecution. They are also to be made aware of the coming catastrophe from the cosmos.

How are earthly goods before and after the catastrophe from the cosmos to be handled?

Before the catastrophe from the cosmos, earthly goods must be used for brotherly love, and spiritual goods must be acquired. After the catastrophe, what you still have shall be shared. Jesus will replace everything as proof of His love and power.

What tasks are to be completed after the catastrophe from the cosmos?

Christian survivors must support other survivors of the natural disaster in word and deed, explaining to them the positive purpose of the disaster. After the disaster from the cosmos, many survivors will doubt God's omnipotence, love and mercy, turning away from God completely. Therefore, elucidation about the purpose of the catastrophe is important. People seeking advice must be pointed towards Jesus' Divinity, His teachings, His love behind the natural disaster, and the importance of faithfulness during the battle of faith. Many people will have pressing questions about the events that have unfolded. That is why this time must be used to eagerly hint at a loving, wise, and almighty God behind what has happened, and in whom one should believe and whom one should ask for help in times of hardship.

In addition to communicating the Gospel, people are also to be made aware of the coming end of mankind by the scorching of the surface of the earth, so that they can prepare for it in time. They must also be pointed to the necessity of conversion, the proximity of the final judgment, and a possible renewed banishment. Since hardship opens the hearts, in the beginning it can still be openly discussed that Jesus brings help, comfort and hope, if one should return to faith. Jesus' followers must point out His love, goodness, wisdom, power and mercy to their fellow human beings, showing them the way to Him, and by that escaping hardship in the process. They must once again urgently show their fellow human beings the way back to God before the end. The serenity and composure of Jesus' followers in the face of earthly events, their firm conviction and faith, and the evident, supernatural help they receive are good prerequisites to raise others up as well, leading them to reflect on and believe in Jesus and thereby granting them strength through the Word of God.

What tasks should Christians complete during the battle of faith?

Especially during this time it is important to enlighten fellow human beings about what God = Jesus requires of them. They must surrender to Jesus, spread the truth, courageously stand up against slanderers, blasphemers, false doctrines and all who are hostile towards Jesus' teachings.

How should be fought?

Even if the Antichrist and his followers fight in a completely inconsiderate, unloving and despicable manner, Christians must fight only with love and all the zeal they can muster. Jesus' followers will always be motivated to speak the truth, wherever it is missing. They must enlighten their fellow human beings about what Jesus requires of them, that they must stand firm and not be afraid.

How important is active brotherly love after the disaster, and what are the effects thereof?

Without active and mutual support, all the hardship will hardly be survivable and manageable. Willingness to help is blessed and actively supported by Jesus.

Should Jesus' followers work more privately or publicly before the battle of faith?

In everyday life, they can work inconspicuously and beneficially. Above all, religiously unaffiliated and merely formal Christians, as well as unbelievers, must – through an open exchange of ideas – be motivated to reflect and be led to Jesus through the gospel. To have a compelling argument, however, the disciples of Jesus must themselves be convinced of the Divinity of Jesus and His teachings.

What is the point of enlightening those who doubt the Divinity of Jesus?

Those who believe in God, but do not believe that He became man in Jesus, will experience great hardship during the battle of faith, especially when the time comes for them to make a clear decision. That is why they should be enlightened in this regard.

How are arguments and wrong conclusions of the opponents to be handled?

The followers of the Antichrist will spread much erroneous information and make sharp, pointed arguments against the followers of Jesus, as well as against the defenders of His teachings. A quick prayer to request Jesus' help is enough for Him to put unbeatable counter-arguments on the defenders' tongues, which only need to be uttered.

Can servants of Jesus minister healings, as well as work signs and miracles during the time of need and in the battle of faith?

In order to strengthen doubtful Christians in faith, or to simply reignite faith, old and familiar teachings will often be no longer sufficient in the time of need after the catastrophe, as well as during the battle of faith. So, in order to help in times of need, Jesus' servants may and even must perform signs and miracles in Jesus' name. Unbelievers may thereby be led back to faith. However, no miracles are to be performed in front of complete unbelievers.

What protection does Jesus promise His followers and confessors?

Since Jesus holds all power, He has the ability to protect His followers in any case, for as long as it is appropriate. Therefore, Jesus' servants may be fearless and resolute in spreading His teachings.

Forerunner of Jesus

Where will the forerunner of Jesus come from? When and how will he be recognized?

The forerunner of Jesus will emerge from the ranks of those who are familiar with the New Revelation. The forerunner of Jesus will realize his true identity and mission rather late. He will not appear until after the global catastrophe. Only during the time of the battle of faith he will come to the forefront as the counterpart of the Antichrist. He will be recognizable by his power of speech, his teaching about the identity of Jesus as God, and the help he will provide for the persecuted believers.

When will he become aware of his task?

The forerunner of Jesus will not be aware of his role and task beforehand. He will suddenly realize it.

Who will recognize him as the forerunner of Jesus?

He will be recognized and appreciated only by true believers. The majority of people will not recognize him.

What qualities and spiritual gifts will he exhibit?

Love for God = Jesus and his neighbor, goodness, intelligence, complete knowledge and understanding, tremendous power of speech, bilocation, the gift of comforting, the ability to heal the sick and work miracles, as well as patience in suffering; all of this will characterize the forerunner of Jesus.

When will the forerunner of Jesus appear?

Only after the global natural disaster from the cosmos, during the time of the Antichrist and the final phase of the battle of faith will he appear publicly, taking a clear stance against the Antichrist.

What will he represent for the persecuted Christians?

For the Christians persecuted by the Antichrist and his followers, the forerunner of Jesus will be a comforter, counselor, giver of strength through his words, warner, admonisher, friend and deliverer from spiritual distress. He will strengthen them in faith.

What tasks will he carry out?

He will point to the imminent Coming of Jesus, his identity as God, and the final judgment by fire that will take place. He will call upon the indolent and undecided to repent and return to God.

How will he fare?

The majority of people will reject him, mock him, persecute him and even try to kill him. Since his announcements of the coming of Jesus and the final judgment by fire will seem unbelievable to the people of the world, he will be mocked and ridiculed as a fantasist. The people of the world will not want to hear or know anything about his admonitions and warnings. Because he will clearly expose and decisively combat the person and behavior of the Antichrist, as well as his followers, he will be persecuted and hated by them, and they will do everything in their power to render him harmless and kill him.

How will the forerunner expire?

After only a short but productive period of activity, he will be murdered by the followers of the Antichrist – as John the Baptist once was.

More about the forerunner of Jesus (Bible, Lorber)

Will the reincarnation of a highly elevated spirit also prepare the Coming of Jesus during the Endtimes? Did Archangel Michael incarnate in Sehel, Elijah and John the Baptist?

When will Jesus return?

During the present endtimes, Jesus' return is imminent. His return will occur when the time of tribulation, persecution and distress of Christians is so intense that they start to despair. They will have nowhere to go and their death at the hands of the persecutors will be imminent. Jesus will return on the day of the end of mankind and the earth.

Will the Coming of Jesus, the Rapture of the still living believers and the end of this period of mankind all occur on the same day?

It will all be directly related. The complete destruction of the earth's surface and the utterly degenerated humanity will create the required conditions for a new earth and period of humanity.

For what purpose will Jesus return?

Jesus will come to save the last faithful Christians from their destruction by the Antichrist, from the utter destruction of the earth's surface and the doom of all godless people. The Rapture will separate the last faithful ones to God from the unbelievers and opponents of God, the 'spiritually dead', thereby judging them. As such, it will not be an individual judgment, but a collective separation and deliverance of all the good and the doom of all the wicked ones. The raptured living ones will receive their reward, behold the glory and power of Jesus and continue to live upon the renewed, Edenic earth, while the 'spiritually dead' will find their end in the lake of fire and within the abyss of the earth through a renewed banishment.

For whom will Jesus be visible?

Only those people who believe in the Divinity of Jesus, trust Him completely, love Him above all else and keep His commandments will be able to see and hear Jesus partly already during the time of persecution by the Antichrist, or at His coming in the spiritual body. With this they will experience the power and glory of Jesus. For this purpose, the inner vision (clairvoyance) and the inner hearing (clairaudience) will be opened to them.

Why will Jesus' opponents be unable to see Him and His angels?

Only the one who has the spiritual maturity, so that the inner spiritual vision can be opened for him, will be able to see Jesus in the spiritual body and His angels at His coming, without impairment of his free will. The immense abundance of light surrounding Jesus and His angels will be dampened by 'clouds', since it would be unbearable otherwise. Due to their spiritual darkening, followers of Satan will not see Jesus and His light beings; they simply cannot bear it.

Why will Jesus' return cause joy among believers, but horror among His opponents?

The followers of Jesus will rejoice and exult at His return, blissfully rushing towards their Savior. Their godless and malicious persecutors however will not see Jesus' coming, but they will still experience the rapture of the last believers. The persecutors of the Christians will be horrified, their wickedness now becoming clear to them, and they will foresee and recognize the imminent judgment and their inevitable destruction. It is true that the Rapture of the last believers could still revive faith in some persecutors in this last hour, and Jesus would be merciful to them. But since, through their unbelief and misdeeds, they are bound to Satan, this will most likely not happen. And so, they will head towards their renewed banishment into matter.

4/4 - The Final Judgment by Fire, the New Earth and Christ's Reign of Peace

The Rapture of the 'Little Flock' before the Final Judgment

Who will be raptured?

Only the Christians who, despite all the persecutions of faith, continue to act according to Jesus' will and remain faithful to Him until His return, will be taken away from the earth. It will be only a small crowd, however.

How large will the multitude of the raptured ones be?

No number is mentioned. Only a 'small flock' will be part of the rapture.

How can believers become part of the rapture?

Faith in Jesus as God, adherence to His teachings, love for Him and one's neighbor, faithfulness and open confession of Jesus, perseverance and steadfastness during the battle of faith; all of this will bring about salvation through the rapture.

Where will these believers be?

Faithful Christians live all over the world. Therefore, the rapture will likewise take place everywhere.

How will they know that the rapture is imminent?

They will experience the return of Jesus as well as their imminent rapture from within or without.

When and how will the rapture take place?

It will occur at a time when hardship and tribulation appear to become unbearable.

Who can understand the rapturing process?

The process of the rapture is understandable and therefore believable only for people who have a deep understanding of it. Unbelievers will not believe in a rapture and, as such, will not understand any such event.

How will those who are left behind react?

Those who are not among the visibly raptured ones will now understand that the predictions of such an event are a reality. That's why their horror, fear and panic and their weeping and wailing will be great.

Will the visible rapture still be able to save some last unbelievers?

Due to the visible rapture of the Christians, the unbelievers will have a last chance for realization, conversion and returning to God = Jesus. However, their conversion must happen of their own free will.

Where will the raptured ones go?

The 'little Christian flock' raptured in the physical body will be taken to a spiritual, edenic, peaceful and earth-like environment. After the reformation of the earth, they will return to it in a new physical body.

Will the raptured ones populate the renewed earth?

The raptured ones will form the parent tribe for a new period of redemption upon the renewed earth. They are spiritually far advanced and will live a life for and with Jesus. They will pass the knowledge of the past era and the end on to the descendants upon the new earth.

The Final Judgment - The End of this Period of Mankind by the Scorching of the Surface of the Earth

How long has a judgment by fire been predicted as the final divine judgment?

Prophets have predicted a final judgment by fire for earth and mankind for a long time.

Will people believe the warnings and prophecies?

Almost all people doubt a complete destruction of the earth's surface and mankind by fire as a final judgment.

Can this final judgment still be averted or postponed?

God has always known the will and inclination of the people. He knows the development process and puts an end to it, if a certain measure of erroneous development is exceeded. The time that has been predetermined for this since eternity will therefore not be cancelled or postponed.

What is the purpose of the final judgment?

The final judgment decides on the state of the soul and its fate. Depending on the character, behavior, deeds and faith of a person, it will either have a preserving and protective effect, or a judging, retaliatory, atoning and punishing effect.

What will the circumstances and lifestyles be like right before the final judgment?

Materially speaking, out of the chaos of the natural catastrophe from the cosmos, order will be restored for the followers of the Antichrist, and material prosperity will return. On the other hand, the (not raptured) Christians, as well as all other believers, will be persecuted, disadvantaged and plunged into the most bitter poverty... In the end, all believers shall be killed. The godless and sinful conditions are similar to those at the time before Noah's Flood, but they are much worse this time around. Warnings of the imminent end are ignored.

What signs point to the final judgment?

The catastrophe from the cosmos is the last and largest warning before the actual end. After that, merely individual volcanic eruptions, cracks in the earth, magma discharges and earthquakes warn of the imminent complete destruction of the earth's surface. Unusual unrest will manifest in both people and animals directly before the day of judgment. These last warnings will be ignored as well by the worldly people.

When will the final judgment by fire occur?

An exact year or date for the final judgment by fire is not predicted, which is for the good of mankind. It will come as a surprise for almost all people, since hardly anyone believes in the possibility of such events ever occurring. The actual trigger for the imminent final judgment by fire will be, when the followers of the Antichrist set out to kill the last faithful Christians.

That is when the days will be shortened and the sudden and unexpected return of Jesus, the rescue of the still living believers and the destruction of the earth's surface take place. People must be informed about the imminent end, paying attention to the admonitions and warnings of the endtimes. They must constantly adjust to them and live accordingly. The period and conditions of the endtimes have been prophesied for a long time now. However, based on various prophecies of Jesus between 22 and 24 AD, the time frame of the final endtime events can be narrowed down to a few years.

Will the day of the end come as a surprise to everyone?

The prophetic announcements of the end of mankind and the earth, which have existed for a long time, remained and will remain unnoticed by most people until the event occurs. Not only for the people of the world who do not believe the prophecies of the end, but also for believers with knowledge of it, will the end ultimately come suddenly and surprisingly.

Will the experiments in the depths of the earth trigger the utter destruction of the earth's surface?

The followers of the Antichrist will trigger forces within the depths of the earth by irresponsible, localized experiments, without being aware of the repercussions of their actions, which, in the end, they will not be able to stop anymore. They will inadvertently set off explosive chain reactions within the earth and bring about their own destruction. They sacrifice living people as test-objects for their experiments. Since God does not tolerate such irresponsible and sacrilegious experiments, which stem from a craving for fame, an excessive need for recognition and greed for material goods, He allows the atomic destruction of the earth to happen.

Without having sufficient knowledge and understanding, they shall, for the sake of profit, release localized forces through deep drillings. However, as soon as these experiments succeed, the following chain reaction is no longer limitable, and everything explosively shatters into atomic components. This will happen to the entire surface of the earth, even down to great depths. Satan drives the researchers to these experiments in order to destroy the earth and thereby terminate the spiritual development that is taking place upon it. In doing so, however, he facilitates the creation of a renewed earth by God. Through the dissolution of everything, the shattering of matter into atoms and the release of the spiritual elements therein, new exterior forms can now be molded with the matching spiritual components.

What is the sequence of events that constitute the utter destruction of the earth's surface?

The final judgment in the form of the scorching of the earth's surface and the destruction of everything living within, upon and above it lasts only a few hours. Magma eruptions through fissures in the earth, violent earthquakes, flames emerging from the depths, volcanic eruptions, a veritable rain of fire, uproar of all elements, floods and enormous storms; all of this taken together will bring about the utter destruction of the earth's surface. No stone will remain atop the other. The roaring thunder throughout the disastrous events signals the deafening voice of God, waking up the spiritually sleeping mankind, since the previous, quiet admonitions and warnings were overheard continually. People will be consumed by the flames emerging from the bowels of the earth, and they will fall into the abyss. However, the destruction of the earth from within and the atmospheric ignition will proceed at different rates all around the globe.

How will the people react to this event?

There will be no escape, for the same judgment will be recognizable everywhere. Fright, horror, confusion, helplessness, hopelessness, powerlessness, indescribable panic and fear of death will dominate the people of the world.

Will only the earth's surface or the entire earth be destroyed?

The entire surface of the earth will be scorched down to great depths, but the core and the earth as a whole will remain. With these events will this era of mankind and earth history end. However, the earth's surface must be completely redesigned in order to continue to be habitable for human beings.

Who will meet his end in the judgment of fire?

The people who have turned away from God, pledged allegiance to Satan, served the Antichrist and lived purely worldly lives will find their death during the final judgment of fire. They have not believed and are filled with wickedness and falsehood, and so the earth will swallow them up in a lake of fire.

For which unbelievers is salvation possible?

Since God gives every person, even the most wicked and erring, opportunities to recognize their errors, to change their thinking and behavior and to return to God, conversion and thus salvation from a renewed banishment is indeed possible, even until the very last moment. After their death they arrive in the spiritual world and will be able to incarnate on the new earth, striving to develop higher and higher. However, those who persist in their resistance are lost without salvation and are banished into matter.

Will survival only be possible through the rapture?

Salvation from the final judgment by fire will only be granted to those who have remained faithful to God = Jesus, even during the most difficult battle of faith against the Antichrist and his followers. They will consciously witness the destruction of the earth and the doom of the wicked and bad.

Banishment of incorrigible opponents of God into matter (renewed banishment) - What does banishment into matter mean exactly?

If a human being completely departs from God, constantly transgresses the divine order, and all its striving is for the acquisition of material goods and enjoyment, the soul hardens. After the death of the body, such a human soul is dissolved into individual soul particles. It is then banished into matter and has to restart its development from square one, through all the kingdoms of nature, until it can become a free human soul once again.

For who is the renewed banishment more beneficial than an existence in the beyond?

Sins have consequences and require atonement. If, due to too great and too many sins, such an atonement is not possible during one's lifetime on earth or in the spiritual world, a renewed banishment of the soul into matter is the preferable and more merciful way to go.

At what point does the banishment into matter take place?

As long as there is even the slightest chance for a voluntary return to God, His order and all that is good, no spirit is banished after its physical death. However, if, after the end of a developmental period on earth, these conditions are no longer given, such souls will be banished into matter once again. Mankind is now standing on the precipice of such an event.

Who will be banished into matter during the final judgment?

Only those whose striving against God is persistent and whose cup of wickedness is filled to the brim, will be swallowed by the earth during the final judgment of fire, and their souls will be banished into matter.

What purpose does a renewed banishment have?

A banishment of the spiritual into matter is, on one hand, punishment and atonement, a settlement of one's guilt for complete godlessness and wickedness, but on the other hand, it is a means of education and a chance to regain one's freedom through the stages of development in nature.

Why is banishment of the soul into matter so terrible?

A human soul, which previously possessed freedom, perceives the utter lack of freedom after the banishment into matter as terrible.

Is banishment into matter merely a judgment, or a grace and a chance for development as well?

Even though a renewed banishment of the soul into matter is the utmost consequence for a failed life, it is, in the long run, nevertheless the most merciful, beneficial and promising alternative as well, under the given circumstances, when compared to a development in hell.

The Kingdom of Peace upon the renewed Earth

Why are fundamental reformations necessary?

Everything that has fallen away from God must return to God's filiation. If this is not achieved in a developmental period, the process continues in a new period. The particles of the soul banished into newly formed matter thereby return to human nature through the natural realms.

How quickly does the scorched surface of the earth transform into a new earth?

The renewal of the scorched earth and the creation of new forms containing banished spiritual contents can and will instantly happen through an act of creation by God. However, the raptured survivors will not witness this act of creation.

How will the raptured ones experience and remember the fall of the earth?

The raptured ones will indeed observe the doom of mankind by the scorching of the surface of the earth, but they will neither be affected nor burdened by it within their consciousness.

Will the raptured ones witness the reshaping of the earth?

While the raptured ones temporarily dwell in an edenic abode, the reshaping of the earth's surface by God will take place without them witnessing it. However, it will be explained to them. Only then will they return to the renewed earth.

Will the raptured ones know how long the rapture will last?

Since the raptured ones are deprived of the concept of time, they will not be able to estimate the duration of their rapture into an edenic environment.

Who will the first inhabitants of the new earth be?

The believers raptured during Jesus' return will inhabit the new earth as progenitors, raising a new generation of people.

Why is the knowledge of the destruction of the old earth important on the new earth as well?

Those who have been raptured from the old earth must keep the memory of the past era, together with all its aberrations and sins, in order to pass it on to the descendants as a constant warning.

What will await the newly arrived upon the renewed earth?

The myriad of new creations and impressions of the new earth will be overwhelming. They will surpass everything that the old earth offered.

What tasks will the raptured ones have on the new earth?

They are to bear witness to the return of Jesus on the old earth, and they are to deliver and teach the Word of God to the descendants. Later on, when people will once again become more materialistic, they are to remind them about the doom of the old earth. They are to help the descendants in reaching complete redemption and assisting the banished ones in ascending development.
