

Jesus explains... Receive and eat My Flesh and drink My Blood

May 15, 1960 - Message 7600 from Jesus through Bertha Dudde

My Word gives you everything you need on earth... For as soon as you are addressed by Me, you will lack neither strength nor grace, and you will be well provided for spiritually and materially... for My promise is: 'I will not leave you as orphans...' I wish to reveal Myself to you and thereby make Myself known to you as your Father. And a father truly provides for his child spiritually and materially, if only it will allow itself to be addressed by him. For then you give Me proof of your love for Me, and I likewise prove My fatherly love to you by speaking to you.

A loving father's heart is always ready to give. You will therefore lack nothing when you hear My address, for then you will know that you are My children, whom I care for both spiritually and physically, and how fortunate you may consider yourselves to be that you hear My Word, for it proves to you that you belong to My children, those who have already set out on the path to the Father and who will safely reach their goal... May no anxiety afflict you any longer, for your very will to let Me speak to you also gives you the strength to continue on your earthly path, in the certainty that you will reach the end...

For it is My flesh that you eat and My blood that you drink... It is bread and wine that you may enjoy to strengthen your soul. You take My very Self into yourselves, for I am the Word made flesh... Consider the depth of these words, that I Myself am within you when you hear My Word, when I speak to you, when I offer you My greatest gift of love that you could ever receive from Me on earth. I am in you, otherwise you would not be able to hear Me, and My presence must make you overjoyed.

Therefore, you may truly consider yourselves blessed when you are in the grace of My direct address, when you receive My Word, which is conveyed directly to earth through messengers, when you are honoured with My address, marking you as My children, for only My own can recognize My pure Word, and only My own take it into their hearts. The fact that you are allowed to hear or read My Word will be proof to you that you belong to Mine, and you shall be happy in this certainty and desire ever more ardently to hear My Word; you shall not let any opportunity pass by when My Word resounds to you, for then you also have the assurance that I Myself am in you and with you, otherwise you would not be able to hear Me, you would not recognize the voice of the Father, speaking to you Himself.

And you shall enjoy the food I offer you with hungry hearts. You shall eat My flesh and drink My blood and take Me completely into your hearts... You shall receive bread and wine from heaven and be strengthened in a way that no other food your earthly body consumes can. For I offer My food to the soul, and this food allows the soul to mature and helps it to attain eternal life... Do you now know why I sent you the words through My disciples... 'Take and eat, take and drink...?' Do you now know that I also spoke to My disciples, that they heard My Word and that they should carry this Word out into the world... 'Do this in remembrance of Me...'

What have you humans made of My words, and what meaning have you given them? That in the end, only a few still know that I give bread and wine to men, that I give them My Word as proper nourishment for their souls, and that I am present when they hear My address, indeed, My very voice. And My Word will remain, for all eternity. Again and again I will speak to the people where they allow My presence, and again and again they will be able to draw strength from My address, so that their souls may mature, that they may fulfill the purpose of earthly life, that they may shape themselves into love, seeking and finding union with Me, for My love speaks to them continually, because My love draws them closer, and the soul can no longer resist My love's radiance, My Word... Amen
